VIOLENCE FLARES ON GREAT LAKES

Two Officials Of Lake Carriers Association Are Injured

FOUR 'C. I. O. SEAMEN' ARE HELD AFTER DISTURBANCE

DETROIT, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Violence flared again on the Great Lakes shipping strike front today as two officials of the Lake Carriers Association were injured and four "C. I. O. seamen" detained by South Chicago police after a melee at an association hall there.

At the same time, Joseph Curran, president of the C. I. O. National Maritime Union, asserted at Detroit strike headquarters that two "N. M. U. pickets were injured today" in an incident at Ashtabula, Ohio.

Curran, in a statement issued before he boarded a train for New York where he will discuss strike settlement terms, declared:

"The seamen want to picket peacefully in their effort to win the 40-hour work week. If goons from the Lake Carriers Association want trouble, they'll get it all across the lakes. We propose to see that no pickets are hure • • •."

At Ashtabula, unofficial reports indicated several pickets were injured when an auto passed through an N. M. U. picket line.

Meanwhile at Cleveland, the C. I. O. unionists—who began their strike against Great Lakes ship operators at 12:01 a. m. Thursday—received support from the A. F. of L. tugmen.

Reports from that city said the tugmen of the O. D. T.-operated Great Lakes Towing Company failed to tow two ore freighters in and out of Cleveland harbor.

Lawrence C. Turner, manager for the government operated company, warned the A. F. of L. unionists that failure to furnish normal service would constitute a violation of federal regulations. He then conferred with A. F. of L. officials regarding the stoppage.

The Lake Carriers Association reported that a survey at 6:15 p. m. tonight showed 35 of its 316 vessels affected by the strike.

Top leaders of the N. M. U. headed for New York and Chicago today for "important" negotiations with two of the companies involved in the far-flung lake work stoppage.

RAINS EXPECTED IN FLOODED AREA

At Least 2,395 Homes And Other Buildings Destroyed, Damaged

(By Associated Press)

Southern Illinois and eastern Missouri, beset by torrential rains and flash floods that took four lives and damaged more than 2,400 homes and buildings at a loss of several million dollars, braced Saturday night for new rains.

The weather bureau predicted thundershowers would strike parts of the flooded area Saturday night and Sunday followed by clear cool weather.

The American Red Cross reported at least 2,395 homes and other buildings were destroyed or damaged by floodwaters in the St. Louis area and that eight shelters had been set up to house and feed victims. More than 7,000 persons were provided with food and meals and shelter was given to 400 marooned for a time on a train between Woodlawn and Mt. Vernon, Ill., the Red Cross added.

As much as nine to 12 inches of rain fell in some areas and streams started to rise, flooding highways.

A flood weakened levee burst at Pearl, Ill., 75 miles northwest of St. Louis, sending thousands of tons of sand and water into the community

VETERAN ACCUSED OF CHAINING WIFE

BEATTYVILLE, Ky., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Sheriff Shelby Kincaid said his officers were pressing a hunt today for a 80-year-old war veteran accused of collaring and chaining his wife to a bedpost every night over a period of months and whom the sheriff quoted as saying "You'll never take me alive."

Mrs. John Chambers, the sheriff said, obtained a warrant for her son-in-law, Ben Chapman, charging him with assault and battery in connection with the alleged chaining.

He quoted the woman as saying a "trace chain" and a piece of wire, the latter as a collar, were used to chain Mrs. Chapman in the couple's two-room mountain cabin, which is sited 15 miles from here in an isoled section.

British Plan To Deport 1,400; Mystery Voice Stirs Up Jews

No Quickly-Approved Welcome For Refugees In U. S. Expected

By Carter L. Davidson

HAIFA, Palestine, Aug. 17.—(AP)—A mystery voice harangued crowds of angry Jews today, urging them to "be prepared for anything" as the entire port city of Haifa stirred restively to ominous mutterings against deportation of more illegal immigrants to Cyprus.

British officials were hopeful that the new shipment of 1,400 refugees could be carried out tonight without a new outburst of violence in the tense port. A first attempt to get the operation under way last night was abandoned in the face of opposition from the immigrants themselves.

A high police official said the immigrants aboard the illegal ships "23" and "Fenice" in Haifa harbor first had

5 KILLED, MANY HURT IN STORM

Death Toll In Destruction Of Minnesota Tourist Camp May Reach 15

MAKATO, Minn., Aug. 17.—(AP)—At least five persons were killed and more than 50 injured tonight in a tornado that momentarily dipped from the sky to destroy a 22-cabin tourist camp in scenic Minnesota river valley, three miles southwest of Mankato.

MANKATO, Minn., Aug. 17.—(AP)—At least five persons were killed and many injured early tonight when a twister demolished a 22 cabin tourist camp on the outskirts of Mankato.

Deputy Sheriff Henry Schweickert of Blue Earth county said early reports to him indicated the death may total 15.

The five known dead were reported by Ed Wold, ambulance driver, who made several trips to the storm area to bring injured to hospitals.

Wold, one of the first to arrive at the scene, said "there were people strewn all over the place and the buildings were shattered."

One of the dead was identified by Sheriff Frank Cord as Ronald J. Wirig of Mankato, about 35 years old.

The tourist's camp's registration ledger was lost in the storm, but it was believed about 40 persons were registered at the place.

200 NEGROES AND WHITES IN SCUFFLE

SWEDESBORO, N. J., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Two hundred Negroes and white persons scuffled in a restaurant tonight, and New Jersey state police are assisting local authorities in handling restless groups of men gathered on the streets.

The groups were quiet but appeared to be "waiting for something to happen," the state police said.

The disturbance started in Andro's Restaurant, a state police spokesman said, after Negroes had entered a section of the restaurant normally reserved for white patrons.

No Secret To Making Millions In Cotton, Says Broker

Tom Jordan (left) cotton trader here, shown with Secretary Henry Plauche (right) of the New Orleans cotton exchange, in a copyrighted interview with the New Orleans States said there's no secret to making $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 in cotton—just buy the market and watch the staple go up 1,200 points. Jordan, called one of the most important individual traders in world cotton market, admitted his expenses last year were more than a million.

COUNCIL TO VOTE ON NATIONS' BIDS

Six Of These Seeking Membership Already Under Committee Fire

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The first actual vote on nine applications for United Nations membership will come in the organization's powerful security council, where the Big Five holds the power to blackball any state seeking admission.

Six of the bidders, including Soviet-sponsored Albania and Outer Mongolia, already have been under fire in a council membership committee.

Robert Fack of the Netherlands, chairman of the committee which has been debating the requests for two weeks, said today that this group would not ballot on the individual countries or make definite recommendations to the council.

He added that instead the committee would present a comprehensive report outlining all the information gathered about the applicants and setting forth opinions expressed by countries sitting on the committee.

The ruling in effect moved the controversial bids to a higher level for balloting, as all 11 countries on the council are represented on the committee.

Fack and Jerzy Michalowski of Poland, the incoming chairman, hoped to have a preliminary draft of the report before Monday's committee meeting. It then will be discussed and go to the council by Wednesday.

Each application must gain council approval before advancing to the general assembly for a final vote.

ECONOMY DRIVE SHOWS PROGRESS

Word Lacking From Army And Navy On Biggest Cuts Requested

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—President Truman's economy drive showed progress tonight, but word was lacking from the Army and Navy on the biggest cuts he requested—$1,650,000,000 from military outlays.

Not until next week, a Navy spokesman said, can that service report whether it will be able to comply with a proposed $650,000,000 slash in authorized expenditures for fiscal 1947.

The Army reported it would "comply fully" with a $124,000,000 paring of civilian works projects. However, an official said the war department is now studying the White House request for a thumping $1,000,000,000 slash in its spending for military purposes, and cannot yet state its position.

An informal survey of progress on the economy orders issued two weeks ago revealed, however, that the maritime commission will reduce new ship construction to less than $60,000,000.

This more than meets Mr. Truman's request for a 50 per cent cut in new ship building. It means cancellation or deferment of seven fast new passenger vessels.

The budget bureau got ready meanwhile to swing its own economy cleaver. Next week it will announce employment ceilings on all agencies, forcing the release of an unrevealed number of workers to cut government payrolls.

Following up his Aug. 1 forecast of a $1,900,000,000 federal budget deficit for fiscal 1947, Mr. Truman asked all agencies to trim their spending. He sent letters to eight agencies making specific suggestions for cuts, and banned the awarding of all public works

DELHI O. K.'S SLOTS FOR TOWN REVENUE

DELHI, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Citizens of Delhi voted overwhelmingly Friday to permit the operation of slot machines within the corporate limits in a referendum. The votes was 268 to 66.

The proposition read as follows:

"Shall the town of Delhi permit slot machines to operate within the corporate limits of Delhi with proceeds going to the community fund? Yes or no?"

Slot machines have been operated here for several years and many community improvements have been made from the proceeds, Mayor Wilbur Farmer said. Recently several complaints were made and the machines were removed and the referendum called. The machines were back in operation Saturday.

Possibly 115,000 Troops Along Araxes River On Boundary

TEHRAN, Aug. 17.—(AP)—An official forign source who requested anonymity said today that cabled reports from the northern frontier indicated the Russians had massed between 15 and 25 divisions—possibly as many as 115,000 men—along the Araxes river boundary between Iran and Soviet Russia.

This official, who said the reports came from "qualified military observers," described the troops as "typical Red army mountain units" and added they were deployed for 38 miles east of Dzhulfa, border city 80 miles north of Tabriz.

(The official Soviet news agency Tass said yesterday it had been authorized to deny similar reports, attributed to Hussein Ala, Iranian ambassador to the United States.

(Ala said in Washington Tuesday that he had received some reports that the Russians had concentrated troops in the Caucasus north of Iran, but that his information did not indicate their purpose. He added that they might be used to counter British pressure against Iran in the south, or to bring pressure on Turkey in view of Russia's proposals for a hand in direct control and defense of the Dardanelles.

Ala said the British had brought in mechanized Indian troops at Basra, Iraq, on the Iranian border near the British-operated oil fields, creating a

118 STEERS DIE WHILE ON TRAIN

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—A cattle train, which lost 118 steers because of arsenic poisoning from Florida to New Orleans, pulled out from here today for the west with the siege of death apparently ended.

Dr. Frank Ford, veterinarian who examined the animals here, said the deaths were due to arsenic poison contracted while they were being sprayed prior to shipment.

Dr. Ford said the danger period was past, although a few more might die en route.

The shipment of more than 800 cattle in 24 stock cars arrived here yesterday, after the removal of 30 carcasses at Montgomery, Ala., and 24 at Mobile. The remaining 64 head died in this area.

The train is reported by railroad officials en route from Okeechobee, Fla., to Winslow, Ariz., where the cattle are to be fattened for market.

In discussing the cause of the poisoning, Dr. Ford said:

"The dipping solution was either too strong, the animals were loaded before being completely dry, or they were allowed to stand in the sun after being dipped. Any of these could have caused the deaths."

He said arsenic causes an animal to stagger, foam at the mouth and fall 24 to 52 hours after exposure.

The animal then will die in from 30 to 45 minutes.

AUSTRIA INVITED TO OFFER VIEWS

European Peace Conference Turns Down Russian Objections

APPROVE PARTICIPATION IN DISCUSSION OF ITALY

PARIS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The European peace conference, turning down Russian objections, voted 15 to 6 today to invite Austria to present its views on the draft treaty with Italy, and then approved unanimously a Soviet suggestion that Iran also be invited.

Championed by Britain and supported by the United States, the Austrian proposal provided that the former enemy state be invited to explain its point of view on the Italian treaty "on the same terms as Albania, Mexico, Cuba and Egypt."

All six Slav nations opposed the move, which a Russian delegate said was intended to air Austria's claim to the south Tyrol.

The debate prompted a suggestion that the Big Four hold meetings outside the plenary sessions to speed the work of the conference, which has not yet gotten down to the task for which it was summoned—the drawing of recommendations to the foreign ministers' council on the treaties for Italy, Finland and the Balkan nations.

The conference wound up its third week today, and impatience over delay has been manifest among the smaller nations. This morning Brooke Claxton of Canada said "it might be a good thing if some of the leaders of the Big Four could meet in order to facilitate more rapid work."

WINDOW ROBBER QUICKLY CAUGHT

Young Officer Nabs Glass Smasher And Recovers All Of Loot

Within five minutes after a thief had smashed a show window of the R & A jewelry store, 323 DeSiard street, and fled with seven wrist watches at 3:15 o'clock yesterday morning, young Officer J. T. Avery had the culprit in custody and had recovered all of the loot.

Patroling his beat in the downtown section, Avery had paused at the Victory Cab company office at Fourth and DeSiard to speak to Basil Pilcher, a driver, when they heard a crash and the jangle of broken glass. A moment later they saw a man dash from a doorway and turn north on Third street, and the policeman leaped into a waiting taxi and directed its pilot, Arthur Smith, to drive him in pursuit.

As the cab whirled around the corner from DeSiard, Avery saw a young man walking south on Third street and, calling for the car to halt, he leaped out and collard him. The suspect immediately confessed and led the officer to the I. C. railroad crossing and pointed out the watches lying beside the tracks.

With Capt. H. T. Ward, who had arrived in answer to a call to the police station by Pilcher, the prisoner was taken back to the jewelry store, and L. E. DeCote, the manager, was summoned from home. He fixed the retail value of the seven watches at $238.25. Other valuables then were removed from in front of a gaping hole in the east widow of the store entrance. The remains of a soft drink

Casualties Mount Steadily In City

British News Agency Reports 270 Killed And 1,600 Injured; Some Shops Are Burned And Others Looted

CALCUTTA, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Rioting Moslems and Hindus fought a pitched battle in central Calcutta tonight and casualties mounted steadily from two days of bloody clashes.

Reuters said the toll was estimated at 270 killed and 1,600 injured. Other reports said more than 2,000 had been hurt.

British army units, some using armored cars, helped hard-pressed police attempting to restore order.

Gunfire sounded in the streets. Many victims were stabbed. Some shops were burned and others looted. Time and again police opened fire to break up angry crowds of Hindus and Moslems.

The rioting started yesterday during the Moslem League's observance of a "direct action day" in protest against British proposals for Indian independence and the Hindus' views on the plan. Rioting and street clashes continued through the night, abating somewhat by early morning, and then burst out anew today and this evening.

The governor of Bengal, Sir Frederick Burrows, in a broadcast urged persons to keep off the streets and declared it was "discreditable that, on the eve of self-government, the largest city in India should become a victim of mob rule."

Moslem and Hindu leaders appealed to rioters to "stop this fratracidal war" and "form peace squads of Hindus, Moslems, Sikhs and other

CIO PUBLISHES VOTING RECORDS

Gives Ballots Of All Congressmen On 12 Major Issues

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The CIO published today as "a weapon in the coming battle of ballots" the voting records of all members of Congress "on 12 issues of major importance to the American people."

Calling the compilation on how congressmen voted a "guide" for citizens in determining how they will cast their ballots, the CIO and its Political Action Committee said in their joint publication that they were not setting up a blacklist or a list of endorsed candidates.

"This is the time to learn the issues—and even more important to get your future congressman firmly committed to supporting labor's demands.

"This is a record of the 79th Congress that failed to act on many of the most important issues affecting the welfare of the people. Congress mangled price control. It looked the other way on housing. It buried health and minimum wage legislation. It refused even to debate the question of an extended fair employment practices committee, to abolish racial discrimination. It failed to act on the anti-poll tax bill. It watered down the full employment bill. • • •

"Labor, farmers, consumers, small businessmen, professional people—all must turn to political action to make sure that the next session of Congress will heed their plight and act in their behalf."

Of the dozen issues selected in the Senate to measure members there up to CIO standards only 30 of the total 96 voted more often for than against the way the CIO would have liked them to vote. In the House only 142 of the total 435 members had more pluses than minuses after their names in the CIO list.

Two senators—Mead (D-N. Y.) and Guffey (D-Pa.)—voted exactly the way the CIO thought they should on all dozen issues. Another senatorial pair—Johnston (D-S. C.) and Stewart (D-Tenn.)—voted contrary to CIO's position on every issue named.

In the House seven Democrats voted against CIO's position on all the dozen issues polled. They were from four southern states, Gathings of Arkansas; Abernethy, Rankin and Whitten of Mississippi; Murray of Tennessee, and Lanham and Pickett of Texas.

The CIO publication, a supplement to the organization's regular newspaper, said a congressman cannot always he judged by his voting record because "frequently they play for the record in the same way that a ball player 'plays for the grandstand.' • • • PAC endorsement of a candidate is based on many factors."

Senators were listed with plus and minus marks according to the CIO view on their votes on the Case strike-control bill, the Truman striker-draft

NEW DRAFT PLAN IS BEING DRAWN

Based On Liberalized Deferment Policies, Officials Say

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—A new draft plan based on liberalized deferment policies is in the making, selective service officials disclosed today.

One of them told a reporter that the latest estimates indicate the draft can produce only 155,000 men 19-29 years of age by next March 31 "even if the bottom of the barrel is scraped." Maj. Gen. Willard S. Paul, director of personnel, said that army needs 185,000.

Liberalized rules would make even fewer than 155,000 men available. About the only way to increase the number substantially would be to raise the age limit above 29 years, one selective service official said.

He added, however, that this is for the army to decide. The War Department specified a few weeks ago it wanted men under 29. The law permits the drafting of men up to 44. In addition 18-year-olds must register but are not subject to call.

Some announcement concerning new deferment policies is expected next week, one official said. Nothing is expected to be done for some time to increase the number of men subject to call as the present is sufficient for months.

The recalculations of manpower, based on liberalized draft rules, were ordered on the heels of protests from education and science organizations that the proposed rules will permit the drafting of some of the "most promising" young scientists of the country.

In addition the American Council of Education estimated recently 8,000 professors could be drafted if present rules are rigidly enforced. This, the council estimated, would eliminate educational opportunities for 168,000 war veterans.

SEVEN CONVICTED ON MAIL FRAUD COUNTS

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Seven men convicted of mail fraud and securities act violation in connection with the sale of Louisiana marshlands as oil properties were granted a 30-day stay of mandate today by the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

The stay gives the defendants time to appeal to the U. S. supreme court. The circuit court has denied a rehearing on its decision affirming the conviction and sentences imposed by the district court in March 1944.

The case involved 27,535 acres of land in Plaquemines and St. Bernard parishes. The government alleged women and clergymen were among the persons victimized.

The seven defendants and their sentences are Millard C. Baker, Nathan Silverman and Gabriel Dias, six years each; Rubeln V. Johnson, seven years; Isadore W. Kahn, Benjamin L. Levy and William B. Bird, five years and one day each.

Two other defendants did not ask for a stay

DECONTROL BOARD'S LINES OF THOUGHT ARE REVEALED

Edwin B. Hauklnson, Associated Press reporter, covered this week's hearings on whether price controls should be put back on major food items. The following, representing his obervations and a detailed study of the record, is a resume of ideas put forth by board members in questions. There is nothin to indicate that the members are committed to those ideas.

By Edwin B. Hauklnson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The questions asked by members of the powerful new decontrol board in four days of public hearings on meat, dairy products and other major foods showed that they were thinking along these major lines:

1. Selective return of price ceilings Aug. 21 to some of the major farm commodities which are found in short supply.

2. Sparing use—if any use at all—of the $869,000,000 subsidy fund allowed by Congress after it revived the Office of Price Administration.

3. Making the long range interests of consumers a major factor in determining whether any product shall remain free of ceilings.

With no guarantee that final conclusions are indicated, those links of thought are patently shown in the record of the scores of questions which the board members asked as more than 100 witnesses argued for and against controls this week.

The board will make its decisions next Tuesday evening. It has cautioned against speculation on what those conclusions will be, leaving the members' questions as the only clue to what was, at least at the moment, on their minds.

All three board members at various times asked different witnesses what would happen if the board allowed some products, such as corn and wheat with estimated bumper crops this year, to remain free while controls applied to scarce items.

Chairman Roy L. Thompson, Federal Land Bank president from New Orleans, asked producers, processors consumer spokesmen about this.

The other two members, Industrialist George W. Mead, Dayton, O., pulp paper manufacturer, and Daniel W. Bell, Washington Park bank president

HITLER'S DETAILED BLUEPRINT FOR INVADING ENGLAND BARED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Hitler's detailed blueprint for an invasion of England that never came off was published today by Justice Robert H. Jackson's war crimes prosecution staff, along with a mass of official documents testifying to Nazi war guilt.

The Fuehrer's top secret general order for operation "sea lion," issued shortly after Dunkirk, called for a "surprise" crossing of the channel behind mine barriers to hold the British navy at bay, with the Luftwaffe and cross channel heavy guns helping to crush opposition.

The plan was predicted, however, upon overcoming Britain's stubborn Royal Air Force, and never went into effect.

Hitler's order was included with some 300 other Nazi documents published in the first of a series of eight volumes designed to reinforce the allied charges that the Nazis plotted and waged aggressive war and committed countless crimes. Officials said it had not been introduced at the Nuernberg trial of 21 leaders of German aggression.

Included also were Hitler's order to his commanders to prepare to crush Soviet Russia, and an aide's memorandum stating that the Fuehrer was studying means of occupying the Atlantic islands "with a view to the prosecution of war against America at a later date." All were dated in 1940 when the Wehrmacht had overrun much of Europe. These have been made a part of the trial record.

Nearly 2,000 documents seized in German salt mines and elsewhere and collected by the American and British prosecuting staffs were marked for inclusion in the new series in their English translation. They were edited by Capt. Roger W. Barrett and by Naval Lieut. William E. Jackson, son of the American prosecutor.

The editors explained in a forward that the purpose was to make avsilable for world inspection material which was excluded from the Neurnberg record because of its length or for other reasons. Approved by Justice Jackson, the volumes are being published and sold by the government printing office.

Hitler's British invasion instructions were contained in his general order No. 16 a document of 1,100 words,

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The secretary of agriculture still is in the small-loan business, but titles will be changed on some office doors in his department.

That, in general, will be the effect of the Farmers' Home Administration Act signed recently by the president. It folds up one agency, but creates another and does not cut out any lending activities.

This is what the four important sections of the act do:

1. Abolish the Farm Security Administration. An offspring of the resettlement administration, FSA was established September 1, 1937.

2. Authorize direct loans for the purchase, repair, or improvement of family-size farms—if the borrower cannot get a loan from any private bank in his comunity.

3. Provide for insuring farm mortgages.

4. Consolidate the short-term emergency loan programs heretofore operated both by FSA and the Farm Credit Administration under annual appropriations from Congress.

The FSA will be succeeded by a Farmers' Home Administration Act of 1946."

"The legislative history is clear," explains a department attorney who helped write the bill. "Congress expected that a new agency would be created to administer the law."

The FSA was set up by executive order, taking over from another agency founded by executive order. The new FHA will be established by authority of the act carrying its name.

The act directs the secretary of agriculture to appoint an administrator, subject to the Senate's confirmation, and sets his salary at $10,000 a year. The department has 90 days to do its reorganizing.

To be eligible for farm purchase loans under the new law, borrowers must be experienced—as tenants, sharecroppers, or farm hands. Also, the farm they want to buy must be of "family-size," which the department interprets to mean one on which "a diligent farm family" can earn a living.

These requirements are waived only for disabled war veterans. They need not be experienced, and their farm maybe of any size so long as the department thinks the veteran's pension plus the probable income from the land will be enough to support him.

Loans to purchase farms, repair them, or make permanent improvements such as barns and outbuildings, may run as long as 40 years. The interest rate cannot exceed 3 1/2 per cent.

The law also provides for three-man county committees to receive loan applications and expedite their handling. No loan can be made without the approval of a local committee.

The only completely new activity authorized by the law is the insuring of farm mortgages.

A man borrowing money from a private bank to purchase a farm can have his mortgage insured to its full amount. The government then takes over all "servicing" of the mortgage—in other words, makes the collections for the lending bank.

Interest on these loans is limited to 2 1/2 per cent (paid to the bank), plus one per cent on the unpaid balance (kept by the government).

The cost to the borrower is the same as for a direct government loan. The bank receives less than it otherwise might, but the mortgage it holds is insured and it spends nothing to collect the payments.

The department hopes the plan will attract private capital to this investment field.

For several years, the FSA has helped low-income farmers finance their operations by loans to buy seed and machinery. This overlapped the Farm Credit Administration's crop and feed loan program.

The new law abolishes FCA's emergency loans, and authorizes instead "subsistence" loans covering the same purposes. These will be for a year, or a crop season, and interest will be limited to five per cent.

liquidation of all resettlement and rehabilitation projects within three years also is required by the new act. The government has been disposing of them since before the war, and has few left.

DOGS LEGALLY OF AGE AT 6 MONTHS

ALBANY, Calif., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Dogs become legal age in six months here, but Police Chief Stanley G. Williams wants to know how you can tell how old they are.

He called in a veterinarian today but that only caused more controversy over the age of four pups owned by GI Student Saul Brahms of the University of California.

Veterinarian J. W. Roberts said maturing of the pups' second teeth indicated they were seven to nine months old.

Brahms said, no, he was there when the pups were born and they were under six months and therefore didn't require a license.

The controversy began when neighbors in a housing project complained to Humane Officer Walter Asher that the canine chorus from the Brahms domicile was by no means a Brahms lullaby.

Asher caught the four pups and the mother dog for the pound.

Brahms put up $4 for a license for the mother but contended the pups hadn't reached the legal age.

Asher said 70 project residents had signed a petition to get the dogs out of there, no matter how old they are.

GIN WORKERS EXEMPT FROM U. S. JOBS TAX

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The internal revenue collector revoking a previous holding, ruled today that clerical and all other employes of cotton ginning plants are exempt from federal employment taxes because they perform "agricultural labor" within the meaning of the social security act.

HIGH LIGHTS OF THE ARMED FORCES VOLUNTARY RECRUITMENT ACT

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2, or 3 years. (One-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)

2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years, inclusive (17 with parents' consent), except for men now in the Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men, depending on length of service.

3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 90 days after last honorable discharge.

4. Up to 90 days' paid furlough, depending on length of service, with travel paid to home and return, for men who reenlist within the prescribed time after discharge.

5. A thirty-day furlough each year with full pay.

6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to enlist or reenlist.

7. Option to retire, at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service — increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active Federal military service counts toward retirement.

8. Benefits under the G. I. Bill of Rights for men who enlist on or before October 5, 1946. A 4-year college, trade, or business school course with expenses paid, at the end of a 3-year enlistment.

9. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

Good News For All

The joint announcement of the Ouachita Parish School Board and the Ouachita Parish Teachers' Council that school teachers of the parish would receive salary raises during the coming year was greeted with wholehearted approval Saturday, not only by the teachers themselves but by all of us who for years have protested the ridiculously low salaries paid to persons in this profession.

The World several months ago related editorially facts and figures concerning conditions in Louisiana's educational system. A survey had been conducted by the United States Chamber of Commerce and one of the facts disclosed was that the average pay of a school teacher in Louisiana was slightly more than $1,200. That, of course, did not mean that all teachers were paid only $100 a month, but it did reveal that many teachers were receiving less than this amount.

We pointed out the preparation necessary before a person could obtain a position in our schools. Not only is a college degree mandatory but a teacher is required to go back to a college or university at various intervals for instruction that may be compared to the refresher courses which are required in the army air forces. Thus, there was little incentive for a boy or girl to adopt teaching as a profession when the prospects for a decent living were so dim.

The statement published Saturday says, in part:

"The teachers, white and colored, received—under the original budget for the 1945-1946 session—a total of $356,812.11. On June 15, 1946, the school board gave a bonus to the teachers of $38,740.25.

"The total anticipated income of the board for the 1946-1947 session is $712,096.13. The total amount to be paid teachers during 1946-1947—white and colored—is $460,751.80 for the regular teachers and $9,795.00 for substitute teachers. In arriving at the salaries to be paid for this session, the board has incorporated the one month's bonus check which it paid last June into the regular salary schedule which increases the number of payments to one more than the length of the school session. The white salary schedule is increased $12.50 per month at each level and the colored salary schedule $14.00 per month at each level.

"In addition to the increase in teachers' salaries the board has raised the bus operators a total of approximately $5,000.00, and the janitors more than $4,000.00.

"The total budget for operation of schools for 1946-1947 is $779,077.30. The total anticipated income for this season is $712,096.13. The budget of proposed expenditures for the same period is $66,981.17 more than the anticipated income for 1946-1947.

"To illustrate the salary increase we will take a typical white teacher who has a B. A. degree and ten years teaching experience. When she reported for work in September 1945, she expected to receive $165.00 per month for nine months or $1,485.00. She received this amount plus a bonus of $165.00 last June 15. This session she is to receive $180.00 per month for 10 months or $1,800.00. Under the present schedule her salary reaches a maximum of $2,050.00 per year, after twenty-one years of teaching experience."

The increase perhaps is not as much as we would all like to see put into effect, but it certainly is a step in the right direction. The announcement brings us hope that the status of our teachers will continue to be improved, and it certainly is encouraging to the entire community to know that something finally is being done to correct a wrong that has existed for many years.

NOW WE GOT AN AIRFIELD!

Mayor H. H. Benoit and Commissioners C. R. Tidwell and W. D. H. Rodriguez, who, as Monroe's council, became the directing heads of the Municipal Airport when the flying field and operational buildings at Selman Field were taken over by the city under a permit from the army engineers this month, admit they are novices in the operation of such a project.

All they profess to know about it is what they have learned from intensive study of books on the subject, and knowledge acquired by the councilmen on recent visits to the publicly owned airports at Memphis and Nashville, Tenn., Texarkana and Little Rock, Ark., and Shreveport.

That is why, the officials said Wednesday, they are proceeding slowly and cautiously in the matter of naming a general manager for the new enterprise. They would like to find a man who knows the airport business thoroughly, to whom they could turn over the highly specialized job completely, giving him a free hand in the many phases of actual management. The council then would become, as in the operation of the city-owned light and power and water systems and the bus line, a "board of directors," passing only on matters of policy and finance.

But experienced airport managers are mighty scarce, the council has discovered, with the demand for them far exceeding the supply. Certainly none looking for a job has appeared here. So, as has been done successfully in other cities, it is probable Monroe will have to "break in" a manager, finding someone with a good background for general business ability to learn as he goes along. In that event the mayor and commissioners would at first give much personal attention to the detailed operation of the facility.

From what they already have learned, the officials believe the airport will be self-supporting from the start and should begin to yield a profit for the city within five years. That would come with the expected increase of privately owned planes that will be housed and serviced there, and with greater use of the plant by commercial air lines.

The very first matter of business confronted by the council when it took over the operational section of Selman Field was something that one of the members happened to know a great deal about, and it appears the books will be started off with a profitable transaction.

After the transfer from the army engineers had been completed the city found it was the absolute owner of some 2,000 acres of hay, growing between the flying strips and in the fields east of the runways. Immediately the mayor and Commissioner Rodriguez "elected" their colleague to take charge of it, for, as head of the parks department, Commissioner Tidwell knows all about hay and how to make it when the sun shines. Each year his parks crew, operating under Supt. Johnnie Simmons, cuts enough grass on city owned property to feed all the 16 mules of the park department, and sale of the surplus more than covers the pay of workmen engaged in the harvest.

The air field acres, which are expected to yield more than a thousand tons of the finest quality of timothy or lespedeza, are too much for the limited facilities of the park department force, which anyway could not be spared from its regular work at this season. Therefore Commissioner Tidwell has advertised asking farmers and other persons interested to offer proposals on the big job.

HOLLYWOOD, August 17—Gloria Grahame and Stanley Clements (he's just been discharged from Uncle Sam's army) have patched up their quarrel and canceled divorce plans . . . Ha! Merle Oberon and her cameraman husband, Lucian Ballard, announced the other day that any producer who hires one must also hire the other . . . Congratulations to the art (radio star) Linkletters, parents of an 8-pound baby girl. . . . Pals of Gilbert (Connie Bennett's ex) Roland says he's altar-bound with a non-pro beauty in Mexico City.

Producer Edward Small is rushing preparations for a multimillion dollar screenography of Christopher Columbus, whose life, ironically, has never been filmed . . . Seriously ill: Director John Ford . . . Wotzis anent Orson Welles being requested to leave the Algonquin Hotel in New York recently because of alleged "rudness" to the hired help? . . . Look for a reconciliation between comedian Lou Holtz and his estranged missus . . . Robert Young has bought a 180-acre walnut ranch on the Monterey Peninsula.

Irene Rich, who recently donated land for the building of a community center for Negroes, amplified the gift last week with additional acreage to accommodate modern homes for Negro workers in nearby industrial plants . . . Marcelita Yule, daughter of John Boles, has a brand new Las Vegas, Nevada, divorce from her socialite spouse . . . And speaking of Las Vegas, the report that Sally Rand is dancing there in the "altogether" should interest San Francisco police who recently stopped her show on indecency charges, despite the fact that she was wearing a costume . . . Add luck children: Newly-weds Barbara Hale and Bill Williams, gifted with a "pay-nothing" honeymoon in Hawaii by the Matson Steamship Company.

PREVIEW NIGHTS: Pic of a welterweight week: United Artists' "Caesar and Cleopatra" (Claude Rains-Vivien Leigh). George Bernard Shaw's story of an aging Caesar and a tempestuous Cleopatra gets magnificent translation in England's most ambitious color production . . . RECOMMENDED Universal's "The Killers" (Burt Lancaster-Ava Gardner). A hardboiled murder drama that packs a powerful emotional wallop—too potent for impressionable youngsters . . . Republic's "Rendezvous With Annie" (Eddie Albert-Faye Marlowe-Gail Patrick). The sort of rollicking rendezvous that will appeal to most movie-goers . . . FAIR: RKO'S "Criminal Court" (Tom Conway-Martha O'Driscoll). Tightly-plotted courtroom drama that will win a favorable verdict as supporting fare . . . Republic's "G. I. War Brides" (Anna Lee-James Ellison). The soldier takes a wife; the wife takes the honors . . . BEST PERFORMANCE: Claude Rains in "Caesar and Cleopatra."

Hollywood trade papers proudly quoted a florid line from a Japanese newspaper which stated that "The joy of seeing American motion pictures again is greater among us than the sorrow of defeat." Only a Hollywood trained ego would be capable of swallowing that little gem.

Hollywood is still chuckling over the news that because there were cameramen present, Marlene Dietrich refused to kiss Jean Gabin when she left Paris recently. According to the newspaper accounts, Miss Dietrich's secretary explained to the press that "Mlle. Dietrich is still technically married, and it would be indiscreet to photograph her kissing another man." Gabin, less diplomatic, contented himself by shaking his fist at the cameramen. Well, it seems to me that Marlene and M. Gabin shouldn't be too angry. The photographers, like the public, haven't been given much opportunity to remember that Miss Dietrich is still, technically, Mrs. Rudolph Sieber.

Worthy of support by the entire movie industry is Charles Bickford's campaign for the endowment of a College of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, to function in connection with the University of California at Los Angeles. It's an ancient truism that no school is better than its faculty, and only in the immediate vicinity of Hollywood can trained movie workers—actors, directors, writers and technicians—be obtained to serve as part-time instructors. Bickford tells me that already many of the industry's biggest "names" have pledged themselves to conduct lecture courses.

Every now and then, the vagaries of movie casting result in a chucklesome situation. For example: there's a scene in "The Chase" in which Robert Cummings, playing a shaddy down-and-outer brushes against a handsomely dressed man-about-town who repulses him with cutting disdain. The aristocratic gent is played by Eddie Regan, who, for eight completely anonymous years, was Cummings' stand-in!

BY HENRY McLEMORE

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—As a man who is in the red, takes his coffee black, and used to be in the pink of condition, it made me blue to read this advertisement on the back of a national magazine:

"De Luxe camping in the deep, cool woods—far away, and deep in the bush, where the catch is heavy and the bag is full, Tomorrow's sportsmen will camp in luxury. A wood fire under the 30-pound power unit produces steam in the flash boiler . . . in turn this runs the turbo-generator which provides electricity for lighting and cooking, as well as charging batteries to run the boat's electric motor . . . Machines and equipment, developed in lightweight, compact form for war, will be adapted for sport by Men Who Plan Beyond Tomorrow."

All the fun of "roughing it" soon will be over. A few more years and the thrill of being lost in the woods, catching pneumonia from exposure to the elements, and staggering back home after two weeks of having Nature beat your brains out, will be a thing of the past. The descendants of Dan Boone, Kit Carson, and Buffalo Bill will rush to the "wilds" in planes of super-sonic speed, and, dressed in white tie and tails, get their bag with double-barreled, 16 gauge radioactivity-spreading shotguns, all the while lolling in super-stuffed plastic chairs, with slip covers immune to rips, ravels, tears, stains, burns, and thunderbolts.

There will no longer be any necessity for sportsmen to weary themselves with tramping the woods in search of game. The sportsmen's handy, portable radar set will locate the birds, the deer, and the fish. The hunter will be able to relax in his air-conditioned lodge, wearing his air-conditioned clothes, until the radar operator calls out, "Pheasants coming in at 11 o'clock, about four miles out," or "Trout jumping at 7 o'clock. That is all." When the game is in range the hunter will fire, the game will fall, be picked up by an automatic retriever, cooked in three seconds over the plutonium hot-plate, then condensed into pellets for quick, handy eating by the Men Who Plan Beyond Tomorrow, who, after finishing their meals, can go to sleep with the sweet, steady hum of the turbo-generator drowning out the unpleasant sounds of the forest. No bird calls to distract them, no rasping sigh of the winds in the trees, just the lulling whisper of the lightweight, compact machines that took only a little thing like World War II to develop.

The Men Who Plan Beyond Tomorrow may enjoy this sort of camping and hunting, but I'm afraid the boys are going to miss a lot. I doubt if it will be half as much fun to help Dad broil a fish on a streamlined grill, as it was to gather the firewood and glow as bright as the embers from the praise Dad gave you for building such a good fire. And what radio program could sound as sweet to a boy's ears as the talk of the grownups when everyone gathered around the campfire after a day of hunting or fishing?

I know there is one man who'll never forget these biting, cold mornings, when, as a boy, he tumbled out of a warm bed and got in the back seat of a battered old car, and snuggled down with the pointers, and started out for quail. Or, those even colder mornings when, with his Dad alongside warning him to be quiet, very quiet, he sat under a tree, waiting for the first flush of morning and a shot at a turkey gobbler.

Let those hunters who care to, waken in the morning to the sound of an electrical device—I'll do my waking up to the thump of a pointer's tail on the back porch, as he anxiously waits for the men and the guns to come out.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

HORATIO ALGER—Horatio Alger Jr., the author of 120 "success stories," was a failure himself. According to his own confession his life was one of continuous frustration. He suffered from an inferiority complex, and was the severest judge of the mediocrity of his own literary output. "Misery filled the days and nights for me" he wrote in one of his letters, and he died a total failure.

IN WASHINGTON

By Peter Edson
(NEA Washington Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—For the next three months the wooing wail of the congressional candidate will be heard throughout the land.

There isn't much you can do about it, but if you want to be a heckler and have a little fun there are a number of mighty embarrassing questions which can be put to your quiz-kid candidate. They will determine how good a congressman he will be, and whether you want to vote for him or for the other fellow.

Most of these questions relate to unfinished business which the president is sure to mention in his state of the Union message to Congress next January:

1. Do you, Mr. Candidate, favor abolition of rent controls?

2. If this country should find itself facing still higher prices for everything next winter, would you support tighter price-controls and extension of those controls beyond June 30, 1947?

3. Just what are your ideas about how to control inflation?

4. Are you in favor of balancing the budget at the earliest possible moment?

5. Do you favor keeping taxes at present levels to reduce the national debt?

6. How will you vote on the proposal that minimum-wage standards be raised to 65 or 75 cents an hour?

7. Do you favor extending the present social-security system to include farmers, domestic servants, and the self-employed?

8. Are you for or against the Wagner-Murray-Dingell bill, which would establish national health insurance, paid for largely by deductions from workers' earnings?

9. As you know, Mr. Candidate, this country needs more housing, not only for veterans but for everybody. Would you vote for a long-range program which would have the government aid in building low-cost housing?

10. Do you favor more benefits for veterans, or do you think the 10 billion dollars' worth they now have is enough? Would you vote for a straight-out pension for all vets of World Wars I and II, if it were proposed?

11. Mr. Candidate, do you favor merger of the war and navy departments into a single department of national defense?

12. How do you stand on the proposed universal-military-training program, which would provide one year's compulsory service for all able-bodied males?

13. How do you feel about extending the draft law, if that should be necessary to provide sufficient armed forces for fulfilling United States commitments overseas?

14. Would you be in favor of drafting into the armed services anyone who took part in a strike against an industry seized by the United States government?

15. While we're talking about labor conditions, Mr. Candidate, what are your views on requiring labor unions to incorporate and assume more responsibility for the actions of their members?

16. Where do you stand on the proposal to create fact-finding boards in labor disputes and to require cooling-off periods prior to strikes?

17. Do you favor abolishing the poll tax as a requirement for voting in federal elections?

18. Would you vote in favor of a permanent fair employment practices committee to work towards elimination of racial discrimination?

19. Would you approve expenditure of federal funds to develop the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway? (Or the Missouri, Columbia, Arkansas, or Central Valley development, or any other big publicworks project affecting your part of the country?)

20. Would you vote for 50 or 100-million-dollar grants of federal money to create a science research foundation or to provide aid to education?

Let's shift to foreign relations for a few moments, Mr. Candidate, and explore your mind on these:

21. Will you support the United Nations Organization through thick and thin, or do you believe in less international cooperation?

22. Would you vote for a bill to finance the furnishing of arms and military training to Latin America, China, and other countries?

23. Do you think the United States should have control of all Pacific islands liberated by United States forces during the war?

24. Do you favor international control of atomic energy? Or do you believe that the United States should retain complete control of the secret of atomic energy for as long as it can?

25. Would you favor a billion-dollar loan to, and other cooperation with, Soviet Russia? Just what are your views on the Russian situation, anyway?

If these questions don't give your candidate a bad half-hour, nothing will. Incidentally, what are your own answers to this quiz?

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Suday School Lesson For August 25
Scripture: Exodus 20:14; Proverbs 4:14-23; Matthew 5:8; Philippians 4:8
By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

A venereal survey was recently conducted in Oklahoma City, Okla., by the U. S. Public Health Service, in cooperation with the city and state as part of an intensive campaign to wipe out syphilis and gonorrhea. A local church offered its facilities for use as a blood-testing center, and many thousands of people were examined there during the 45-day drive.

It is obvious that such a survey represents wholesome change in the national attitude toward diseases which hitherto it has hardly been polite to mention, though their destructive social consequences have long been well-known to all who faced the facts.

The factors of impurity and shame associated with the diseases made an attitude of secrecy and silence not unnatural. The fact is, however, that ignorance, as well as sin and social evil, has played a large part in the spred of venereal disease.

The facts brought out in connection with the war have probably had much to do with the aroused public attitude. These facts have been appalling though we must not lose sight of the fact that the great majority of those in the armed forces have maintained their integrity of body and soul, often under conditions of great strain.

Campaigns such as that conducted in Oklahoma City are greatly to be commended. But it is obvious that they are not enough in themselves. They must be employed in conjunction with emphasis upon decent moral standards and proper living.

It seems necessary to speak of purity on the plane of physical facts and relationships, for where impurity of conduct is rife there cannot be purity of mind and heart. But one must never forget that purity and pure living are not matters only of outward conduct, or matters related only to sex.

Much of the sexual immorality of our day arises from false standards of character and life. It is the outward expression of something wrong within.

The verses in our Scripture from Proverbs 4 are striking in their ancient wisdom. "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

Purity is primarily a matter of integrity of soul. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

Dishonesty, envy, malice, and all unloving thoughts and acts are in their very essence as impure as the blackest of so-called immoral offenses. It is only the pure in heart in this sense of being unsullied in soul who see God.

I think it was Thomas Hughes, author of "The Manliness of Christ," who said that "no virtue is safe that is not passionate." By that he meant, I believe, that it is neither safe nor enough to be just negatively good.

It is passion that leads men astray, but it is only when they seek the good with equally passionate feelings that they find spiritual and moral strength and security. "Set your affections on things above."

NEW VET TRAINING LAW IS IN EFFECT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—New legislation limits the veteran with dependents who draws a federal subsistence allowance—whether he is taking a college course, training on the job or works as an apprentice.

For the veteran without dependents who draws subsistence the ceiling is $175. The law does not apply to disabled veterans who receive their benefits under a separate law.

The legislation passed by Congress affecting subsistence and "on the job" training also removes restrictions against G. I. students working at full-time jobs while drawing federal subsistence checks. But if he is without dependents and his outside work pays $150 monthly, his subsistence check from the government which originally would be $65, would be reduced to $25 (thus making a total of $175.)

Under the prior law, the student veteran under the G. I. bill of rights could hold a full-time job while going to school only if it were considered a part of his school work in line with his studies. He could engage in part-time employment, however.

The new legislation was introduced jointly by Senators Morse, Republican, Oregon, Johnson, Republican, Colorado, Fulbright, Democrat, Arkansas, Cordon, Republican, Oregon, Stewart, Democrat, Tennessee, and Hill, Democrat, Alabama.

SEVERAL MILLION HICCUPS RUN UP

DAYTON, Ohio, Aug. 17.—(AP)—William C. Wells, by conservative estimate has hiccuped several million times during the last 17 months and he hadn't found a way to stop those odd little throat noises yet.

Wells' hiccups run in cycles—a week or two at a time, then three or four hiccupless days—with no let-up in the procedure.

Anyone with a pet formula, of course, is welcome at Wells' home, but he warns all comers it will have to be original. Outside of four operations, he has tried:

(1) The scare method (somebody hollers "boo"). Wells says his wife and three children have a hard time frightening him. (2) Breath holding. (3) Blowing into a paper bag. (4) Drinking water from the wrong side of the glass. (5) Standing on his head. (6) Eating ice cream rapidly.

TWO IRON LUNGS TO GO TO PUERTO RICO

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Army officials here are preparing today to ship two iron lungs—for an adult and a child—by special plane to Puerto Rico in an emergency.

Colonel D. C. Brake, adjutant at the port of embarkation, said the call, a "very urgent one," had come from San Juan, but that he was not advised of the names of the patients.

He said however that they might be relatives of United States army men stationed there.

One of the "lungs" was flown here today by a Chicago and Southern Airlines cargo plane from St. Louis. The other, a smaller one, had been kept here at the port of embarkation.

Col. Blake said the lungs likely will be started on the 2,000-mile flight early tomorrow.

FUNERAL OF HOTEL FALL VICTIM TODAY

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 17.—(Special)—Services for Lieutenant-Colonel Carter Bell, 46, of the army intelligence service, who died Friday of a broken neck following a fall down a flight of stairs at Hotel Bentley, will be held here at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Colonel Bell had come to Alexandria to join a family group in celebration of the 75th birthday anniversary of his mother, Mrs. John F. Bell. He had served two years in the Burma-China-India theater and was holder of the Distinguished Service Cross. Members of the family said he returned from overseas duty in March. He had returned from a fishing trip with his brother-in-law, John A. Evans, less than two hours before his death, members of the family said. He was a native of Camden, Ark., had attended public school there and later Ouachita College.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. John F. Bell, 1418 Park Avenue, and five sisters, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Bertha Jones and Mrs. Jewel Horne, El Dorado, Ark.; Mrs. H. L. Deutsch, Victoria, Tex., and Mrs. W. W. Humphries, Kermit, Tex.

OIL SHORTAGE IN 20 YEARS IS SEEN

Says Best Foreign Source In Strife-Ridden Middle East

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The state department told the nation tonight that it faces an oil shortage in 20 years and that the best foreign source of petroleum is the strife-ridden Middle East.

Uncertainty over the future of Palestine is even now holding up construction of a pipeline across Saudi Arabia in that area.

In one of the frankest discussions of the relationships between oil, war and foreign policy, the department joined through two of its ranking officials with an officer of the army-navy petroleum board to broadcast in NBC's university of the air a lengthy discussion of the interest presently involved here and abroad.

Remarks prepared for broadcast brought out these principal points:

1. An official prediction that the country faces such a drop in domestic oil production that it will have to import about half its requirements by 1965, barring sensational developments in other fields, and the disclosure that the government is considering further conservation of oil reserves within this country.

2. A statement that American control of 42 percent of the known reserves in the Middle East, largest in the world, is "extremely important" to the United States both because of future import needs and the present "strategic" importance of this oil.

3. The declaration that oil is and "will continue to be a point of friction and conflict" among the nations until they get together on controls which the state department suggests may be set up under the United Nations.

4. The disclosure that the two oil companies which have the exclusive developments rights in Saudi Arabia —Standard Oil of California and Texas Oil—however obtained transit rights through Lebanon for a pipeline to carry oil across Arabia to the Mediterranean but that the companies hesitate to start building until the Palestine situation is cleared up because of the possibility of a pipeline terminal at Haifa.

5. An estimate that Russian oil production in the Baku fields is far below prewar production because of lack of new drilling during the war and that this may be one reason for Russia's desire to open up new oil production in northern Iran across the border from Baku. Russia's long range oil needs probably will be supplied from the Uralvolga area, it was said.

6. Disclosure that the United States is trying to get the Russians to turn the Hungarian oil fields back to control of Standard Oil of New Jersey before the fields are ruined by overproduction; that the Russians have removed some American equipment from the Romanian oil fields and are taking half their Romanian reparations in oil; that the Russians are claiming some of the Anglo-American fields in their zone of Austria as reparations.

Participating in the program were John A. Loftus, chief of the petroleum division of the state department; Charles B. Rayner, state department adviser on petroleum policy; and Colonel G. H. Volgel, executive officer of the army-navy petroleum board, which saw that the nation's land, sea and air forces were well-fueled during the past war and is responsible for the fueling of these forces in any other war.

HENRY R. CLARK

Henry Reynolds Clark, 49-year-old resident of Calhoun, died in a local hospital Friday night, after a lingering illness. The body was taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clark on Highway 80. Funeral services are to be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the Carlton Church, Rev. A. T. Mitchell officiating.

Mr. Clark is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ollie Ownes Clark, his parents, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Julius Cato, Palestine, Tex.; W. D. Clark, Mrs. Ethyl Hansen and Mrs. A. E. Jones, of Monroe; J. B. Clark, of New Orleans; and John S. Clark, of Vallejo, Calif.

Pallbearers will be Bruce Golson, John Wilson, Pete Griggs, Percy Thompson, Merritt Finley and Kermit Finley.

MRS. MAHONEY STOKES

Mrs Mahoney E. Stokes, who became 99 years old last December 14, died at 2:17 a.m. Saturday at the home of a son, Earl J. Stokes, at Rayville.

Born at Black Hawk, Miss., in 1845, Mrs. Stokes had been a resident of Northeast Louisiana for 52 years. She was the widow of W. E. Stokes, a veteran of the War Between the States, who died at Mer Rouge in 1895.

In addition to the son, Mrs. Stokes is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Erma Goyne, Mrs. Lula Rouse, Mrs. Zella Dunham, all of Rayville, and Mrs. Molly Nolan, of Oak Ridge, 38 grandchildren, 86 great-grandchildren and 17 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Shady Grove Church of God at 2:30 p.m., Sunday. Rev. E. L. Tanner will officiate and the Rev. Robinson will assist. Interment will follow in the Oak Ridge Cemetery.

DR. HENRY F. STOVALL

Dr. Henry F. Stovall, age 53, died at his home in Jonesboro Monday morning about 10 o'clock following a heart attack.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the funeral chapel of Edmonds Funeral Home, with the Rev. J. W. Buckner, pastor of the Jonesboro Baptist Church, conducting. Interment followed in the Jonesboro cemetery.

Dr. Stovall was born at the Stovall settlement in Jackson parish on September 29, 1892. He was graduated from Kansas City Veterinary College, in 1916, and practiced the profession of veterinary medicine for thirty years, the past ten of which he spent in Jonesboro where he and his family made their home.

Dr. Stovall was recognized as a civic leader and real estate holder, and has recently been engaged in erecting several new buildings in the downtown section of Jonesboro.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Blanche Madden Stovall; two daughters, Jerry and Jamie, all of Jonesboro; two sisters, Mrs. J. F. Faith, Winnfield, La.; and Mrs. M. D. Nicholson, New Orleans; six brothers, B. M. Stovall, Logan Stovall and Luther Stovall, all of Dodson; Dr. Simon D. Stovall, Petaluma, Calif.; Lee Stovall, Vallejo, Calif., and John C. Stovall, of Kermit, Tex.; and a large number of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were H. M. Gatlin, Sam Walsworth, Sam Holliday, M. F. Connor, Neil Thomas, Otto Evans, Ralph Wheat and Paul Stinson.

INFANT BRYAN

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie M. Bryan, Hamburg, Ark., who died in a local clinic Friday night, were held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at Hamburg under the direction of Hall Funeral Home.

The child is survived by its parents; three sisters, Vadis Malone Bryan, Marlin Virginia Bryan, and Joyce Ann Bryan; grandparents, Mrs. Nellie Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clifford, and a step grandfather, W. F. Sawyer, all of Hamburg.

Funeral services for Willlam Earl Thompson, 3-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson, Waverly, who died in a local sanatarium Friday afternoon, will be held at the Baptist Church in Epps at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Interment will follow in the Epps Cemetery under the direction of the Hall Funeral Home.

The infant is survived by his parents, his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Thompson of Monroe, and his maternal grandparent, Mr. Tony Livie, Start.

ALBERT J. KIDDER

Last rites for Albert J. Kidder, 67, 715 North Fifth street, who died in a Little Rock, Ark., hospital Wednesday, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Hall Funeral Home with Christian Science services. Interment will take place in the new Memorial Park Cemetery here with Masonic rites at the grave.

Active pallbearers will be L. S. Crow, W. L. Perce, J. A. Benson, W. E. Mitchel, O. B. Copeland, and Gus Williams. Honorary pallbearers will be E. B. Hales, L. C. Menard, M. Welch, R. E. Evans, J. G. Keller, D. L. Moss, F. M. Patterson, C. S. Johnson, M. H. Anderson, and A. W. Wilkins, all Masons and employes of the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Kidder, a conductor for Missouri Pacific for about 30 years, is survived by his wife; four sons, A. J. Kidder, Jr., Los Angeles, Calif.; Richard Kidder, New Orleans; Marvin Kidder, New Orleans, and Willard Gober, Austin, Tex.; four daughters, Mrs. Willis Kaufman, Los Angeles; Mrs. Doris Major, Little Rock; Miss Lolus Gober, Little Rock, and Miss Willene Gober, Little Rock; and three brothers, George Kidder, Frank Kidder, and Raymond Kidder, all of Malvern, Ark.

WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN Atlantic, Aug. 17.—(AP)—President Truman abandoned himself to the enjoyment of a prolonged vacation as he put out to sea tonight after a voyage through inland waters which sparkled peacefully in the sun.

He walked about the decks of the U. S. S. Williamsburg chattering with the seamen, thumbed through biographies of two of his White House predecessors, loafed lazily with his staff and dozed occasionally in his stateroom aboard the presidential yacht.

A little more than 24 hours out of Washington, he was described by press secretary Charles G. Ross as "completely relaxed."

"This trip's done him a lot of good already," Ross radio-telephoned reporters trailing the presidential yacht aboard the Weiss, a Navy attack transport commanded by Lt. Comdr. C. E. Nelson.

MAY ROLL BACK PRICES ON MEAT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—OPA Administrator Paul Porter said tonight that June 30 ceilings will be restored on most meat if the price decontrol board authorizes reestablishment of ceilings and payment of adequate subsidies.

Tentative plans, Porter told a reporter, are to roll milk prices back from the present level if ceilings and full subsidies are restored, but to fix prices one cent a quart above June 30 ceilings.

Porter emphasized that these preliminary agreements between OPA and the Agriculture Department are entirely contingent upon the forthcoming decision of the price decontrol board.

The board will announce Tuesday whether ceilings will be restored on meats, dairy products, grain and other items after Aug. 20. It also will announce whether subsidies will be paid again on these commodities and —if so—at what rates.

Porter said he wanted to "flatly deny" a published statement crediting him with having said that price ceilings on meats cannot be rolled back to June 30 levels even if the decontrol board decides to restore controls on them.

He said this was a "totally unjustified" interpretation of a statement he made in a radio address today.

"Even though Congress has cut subsidies," Porter said, "OPA and the Agriculture Department have decided there still will be enough money to pay the June 30 subsidy on beef and pork and probably on veal. We don't know yet about lamb.

"But the whole matter is in the hands of the decontrol board at this time. I don't have any idea what the board will decide—not only as to ceilings, but on whether subsidies will be revived."

If the board shrould authorize restoration of ceilings but not subsidies then price increases over June 30 levels would be necessary, Porter said.

WOW FIELD DAY SET FOR MONDAY

25 Camps To Be Represented At Winnsboro; Dr. Kennedy Speaker

WINNSBORO, La., Aug. 17.—(Special)—Woodmen of the World will hold a field day celebration at the Winnsboro High School at 8 p.m., Monday.

L. A. Richard, state manager, Clyde Pohl, state publicity director, and other state officers will be present. There will be at least 25 camps present, and an old-time initiation with a large class of candidates will be held. A barbecue will be served at the close of the meeting.

Dr. Herbert B. Kennedy, Omaha, Neb., medical director of the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society, will be the principal speaker. He was born in Bulloch county, Georgia, January 3, 1895. He married Miss Nita Belle Coleman, of Graymont, Ga., on October 31, 1917, and has three children.

Dr. Kennedy attended the Statesboro High School and the First District A. and M. School in Bulloch county. He graduated from Emory University at Atlanta, Ga., with the degree of M. D. on May 29, 1917. He practiced medicine in Atlanta for 15 years and served as instructor in medicine at Emory University.

He was serving as interne at the Long Island College Hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y., when he volunteered for service in World War I and served overseas 18 months. He served in England, France and Belgium with the rank of lieutenant and captain. He is a former major in the medical reserve corps.

Dr. Kennedy joined the Woodman of the World camp, number 158, at Statesboro in 1920. He served as consul commander of Capital City Camp, number 786, and also consul commander of Empire State Camp, number 7, at Atlanta, Ga., for eight years. Before assuming his duties in Omaha, he had obligated more than 5,000 candidates at the altar of woodcraft in his own camp and other camps throughout Georgia. He was elected head auditor at Macon Head Camp in 1925, and was elected sovereign camp delegate in 1929, serving in that capacity until called to Omaha.

He was appointed assistant medical director of the Woodmen of the World by President D. E. Bradshaw in January of 1935, and became medical director of the society in 1939. Dr. Kennedy is author of several papers on insurance medicine.

Dr. Kennedy is past president of the medical section of the National Fraternal Congress of America, and past president of the Ad-Sell League of Omaha. He is chairman of selective service board, number 7, of Omaha.

Boyle's Notebook

By Tom Reedy
(For Hal Boyle)

TAUBENBERG, Germany, Aug. 17.—(AP)—If Eva Braun had washed her neck more often and taken shorter strides, she might have been a lady—to her tailor.

But she didn't. Adolf Hitler apparently didn't mind, but Otto Kalman Ponatter did. Otto disliked Eva's habits, and there was nothing he could do about it.

Otto, at 45, now lives here atop a 2,000-foot mountain an hour's drive southward from Munich, quite satisfied to be forgotten as the tailor for Hitler's mistress, the woman Der Feuhrer married in the last days of the crumbling Nazi Reich.

Otto is a good enough tailor to get along without such a reputation, and in present-day Germany such a reputation wouldn't help anyway.

He knew Eva Braun way back as just another girl in Munich.

"She was pretty, with a nice figure," Ponatter said in an interview, "but she was what you would call a pretty shopgirl, nothing unusual. You never would turn around to look at her twice."

Eva never knew what was good and what wasn't, Otto said. As for style, Ponatter is like most tailors. He imposes his own ideas until you let him know about yours. Then he brightens like a pitcher who has hit a home run.

Otto kept waiting for Eva to express just one solid thought about style, but she never did.

"She didn't have any idea," he said disgustedly.

Eva was sent to Otto by an artist, SS or gestapo men always were with her when she came to his shop. She never said "Heil Hitler" like everyone else, just "good morning" or something like that. Apparently she was the only person in Germany those days who could open a conversation without heiling Hitler.

Before that, Otto had heard about Eva. She worked as an apprentice for a Munich photographer, Heinrich Hoffman, who was Hitler's personal photographer for years.

Hoffman remembers Eva as a worker on his staff, too, just as Otto remembers her.

"I never could impress on her that she should make a good appearance," says Hoffman. "Her neck was never quite clean."

In time, Hoffman introduced Eva to Hitler. The Fuehrer was intrigued. They stayed together to the end.

Ponatter wishes that he never had seen her, professionally. Germans on shore rations in bombed out cities don't like to think about Hitler or anyone tied up with him.

Scarcely a day goes by without something reminding Otto that he never should have hitched his wagon to Eva's star.

"You can have her, and Hitler too," says Otto.

HOUSING SITE FOR VETS IS SELECTED

Five Two-Bedroom Houses To Be Built And Sold At Cost Price

Selection of a site in West Monroe for the initial veterans memorial housing project of the Louisiana Department of American Veterans of World War II was announced yesterday by Otto E. Passman, state commander of the organization.

The site selected fronts 350 feet on Pelican Drive, just off Trenton street, and extends back 150 feet. It is platted as lots 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 of block 5 of Westwood Heights subdivision.

An agreement of purchase has been reached between him and Conrad Cage, Jr., owner of the property, Mr. Passman said. Transfer of title, he said, would be effected Monday.

Mr. Cage made the site available for $1,400 because of the use to which the property will be put, it was revealed.

Five two-bedroom homes will be erected on the site and sold to veterans of World War II at cost. Purchase preference will be given veterans in direct need of housing, particularly disabled veterans with dependents.

The homes, plans and specifications for which are being prepared by the architectural firm of Smith, Padgett and Stubbs, will be built in accordance with FHA specifications. While providing ample living space, they will be compact, each having a combination living and dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and bath. The interiors will follow a basic plan. Each exterior will be individualistic. At least 60 feet of frontage would be allowed for each dwelling.

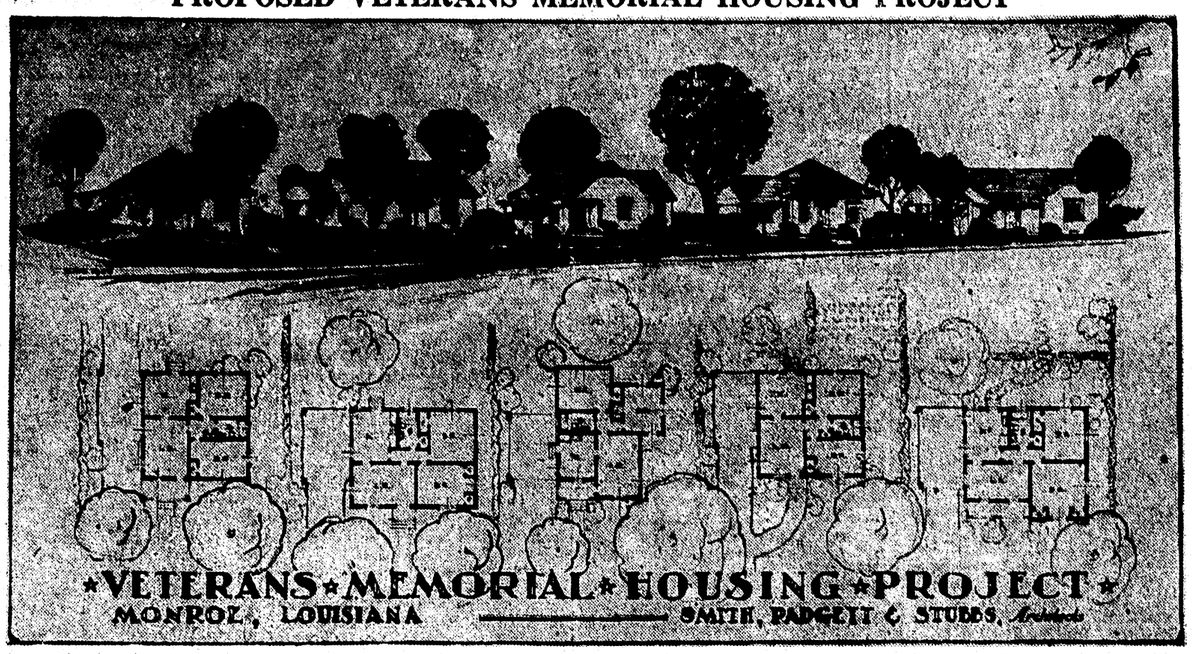
The site selected is accessible bus transportation on both Trenton street and Highway 80. Water and lights are already available and the property is within the proposed sewer extension for West Monroe, bonds for which have been voted.

Mr. Passman said assurance of fullest cooperation of West Monroe officials in furtherance of the project had been given. He promised that every effort would be exerted to expedite construction of the homes and at the same time hold down their ultimate cost to veterans.

When five veterans have established themselves in the homes here, Mr. Passman said the Louisiana Department of AMVETS would undertake to foster similar projects elsewhere in the state. "We have set housing for veterans as the immediate appropriate form of living memorials to our comrades who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II," he declared.

He said the West Monroe project would be dedicated to the memory of some Ouachita parish resident who lost his life in the service of the nation during the recent war.

PROPOSED VETERANS MEMORIAL HOUSING PROJECT



A site has been selected for the proposed veterans housing project in West Monroe, it was announced yesterday. The architect's drawing of the project, being sponsored by the American Veterans of World War II, is shown above. The homes will be sold to veterans at cost, it was said.

HUNTED NEGRO IN POLICE GYMNASIUM

KNOXVILLE, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Several days' search by police for Herbert M. Spenser, Negro masseur, ended today when police found him working in their own gymnasium at city hall.

Police Chief Joe Kimsey said the search for the 47-year-old Negro was instigated at the request of Spencer's father, George W. Spencer of Mobile, Ala., who wrote he hadn't seen his son since 1930.

Spencer told police he had not contacted his family simply because he didn't like to write letters.

Mackenzie's Column

By DeWitt Mackenzie
(Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst)

If you will take a pair of compasses and, using Jerusalem as a center on your map of the Middle East, draw a semi-circle with its top to the north and its radius representing about a thousand miles, you will have enclosed one of the globe's most explosive zones.

There is no area more dangerous to peace, unless perhaps the Paris "peace" conference, which threatens to talk itself into a free-for-all. And let no one think that the rapier play in the Paris parley isn't dangerous.

Our arc will enclose a multi-crater volcano—four craters, to be exact. These are: (1) The Palestine crisis; (2) the fierce territorial disputes between British-backed Greece and Soviet-sponsored Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria; (3) the Russo-Turkish dispute over the Dardanelles (militarily one of the world's most strategic waterways), and (4) the Anglo-Russian tension revolving about the interests of these two great powers in oil-rich Iran (Persia).

In every one of these crises, excepting that in the Holy Land, Russia and England are at sword's points. The same is true indirectly as regards Palestine, for the whole Moslem world is involved in this dispute and the Soviet Union is heavily affected.

Obviously, therefore, every one of these four situations is a threat to Russo-British relations. And when you've said that, you involve the rest of the globe.

Washington is watching all these imbroglios intently.

Palestine is an open keg of powder with lightning playing all around. The country is tense over Britain's deportation of illegal Jewish immigrants to the Island of Cyprus. The outlawed Irgun Zvai Leumi has called on the Jews to a general revolt. Eighteen young Jews have been sentenced to death for bombing the Haifa railroad shops—and took their sentences singing. Four Jewish women also were given life terms.

The question of immigration of Jewish refugees from Europe is, of course, one of the burning issues of the moment. Thus it was big news when the White House yesterday made it known that President Truman is considering asking Congress for special legislation to permit entry of European refugees, including Jews, into the United States.

The president hopes arrangements can be made for various countries, including the United States, to admit many of these people as permanent residents. Meantime London is struggling with a plan to establish Jewish and Arab states in Palestine.

The Dardanelles issue is an international headache. Russia is demanding that control of these straits between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean be placed in the hands of the so-called Black Sea powers—Turkey, Russia, Bulgaria and Romania—letting Russia share jointly with Turkey in the defense. Under the Montreux convention of 1936 Turkey was granted the right to close the Dardanelles to other nationalities if she was at war or threatened by war.

Unless there has been a change in the policy previously stated by Secretary of State Byrnes, Washington holds that the Dardanelles should be open at all times to the transit of warships of Black Sea powers. However, America is said to oppose Soviet demands for participation in military control of the straits. So naturally do Britain and Turkey.

The Iranian situation is acute but unchanged. British troops are at Basra, Iraq, on the doorstep of Iran, ready to defend British nationals and interests in southern Iran if necessary. Russia denies the report that she has massed soldiers on Iran's northern frontier.

If either Britain or Russia should fire a shot in Iran, it might be one heard round the world.

EXPLAINS CHANGES IN VETERANS LAWS

New Legislation Increases Pensions And Adds Many Compensations

Thousands of Louisiana ex-servicemen and women are affected by legislation governing pensions and other compensation which was passed by Congress just before adjournment and later approved by President Truman.

In a statement issued yesterday, John C. Tucker, Veterans Administration contact representative in Monroe, said the new legislation:

1. Increases by 20 per cent the pensions of nearly 2,000,000 veterans of both world wars and 4,000 dependents, effective Sept. 1.

2. Sets up tighter standards for on-the-job training for veterans; provides for financial assistance to states to supervise the program; and sets pay ceilings of 200 for veterans with dependents and $175 for veterans without dependends who are studying or training under the GI bill.

3. Authorizes the Veterans Administration to operate canteens in hospitals and veteran homes, financed by a 4,000,000 revolving fund.

4. Permits veterans who lived in enemy countries during the war to receive VA benefits provided they were not disloyal to the United States. About 10.000 persons to whom benefit payments were suspended during the war, are affected.

5. Allows full pension to veterans who became disabled in peacetime service. Some 40,000 veterans are affected.

6. Authorizes the payments of full pensions to veterans who are hospitalized or who live in VA institutions. In the past these payments have been limited to $20 a month and for those pensioned for non-service-connected disabilities, to $8.

7. Lifted ceiling limits for dependents' pensions allowing widows of veterans of both world wars and peacetime service to draw full payments for their minor children, regardless of the number.

8. Appropriated $30,000,000 with which the Veterans Administration is enabled to provide an automobile or other conveyance for each World War II veteran entitled to compensation for loss, or loss of use, of one or both legs at or above the ankle.

9. Increases pensions for more than 55,000 veterans and widows of the Spanish War group by 20 per cent effective Sept. 1.

The pension increases will be made automatically Mr. Tucker said. Inquiries are not necessary and will only delay the administrative work required to effect the new rates, he added. The increases will be included in payments made Sept. 30.

The new veterans training law sets a ceiling of $175 a month for single men and 200 for married men trainees in on-the-job training program. Of this amount, the government will pay a maximum of $65 for single and $90 for married men. Previously there was no limit of total compensation. The ceiling also applies to veterans studying in schools and other institutions under the GI bill. It does not include disabled veterans.

The measure also permits VA to reimburse state and local agencies for expenses they incur in investigating and supervising industrial establishments where veterans are trained under the GI bill.

CARETAKER REPORTS ON MARY GOSS HOME

Caretaker Belle Sherman of the Mary Goss Home for Aged Negroes yesterday issued her monthly report, listing contributions received during July.

Donations from white friends included $17 cash from Lisotta's Bar. Others were Sig Masur, $1; Paul Collins, $2; Collins' Pharmacy, $2; Joe Biedenharn, $5; Exchange Furniture Store, $1; Hodges Market, meat and vegetables; Simonton Grain Company, 24 pounds of flour; Baker, Lawhorn & Ford, Inc., 24 pounds of flour; A. & P. Store, 20 pounds of flour; "Doc" West, fruit; Circle No. 10, First Baptist Church of West Monroe, 10 pounds of cookies; College Place Baptist Church, groceries, and Haddad Bros., Drygoods Store, $6.50 for the July 4th celebration.

Contributions from colored persons and organizations were: Protective Association, $2; Tabernacle Mission, $1; City Wide Club, $1.50; Welcome Workers Club, $1.50; Happy Success Club, $5; Club No. 4, $3; Carrie Gibson, $1; Joe Gibson, $1; "Cash," $1; Joe Gibson, $2; Liberty Night Club, $3, and Johnnye Mae Cook, $1.

DELBERT BROADWAY SOUGHT BY DAUGHTER

The whereabouts of her father, Delbert Broadway, who was living in West Monroe when she last heard from him in 1942, is sought by his daughter, Mrs. Jim Baldree, of Crockett, Tex.

In a letter to this newspaper, Mrs. Baldree said she does not know the present last name of her grandmother, who remarried in West Monroe.

"It is urgent that I get in touch with my father right away," the letter stated. The writer's address was given as 104 East Third Street, Crockett.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Grain futures firmed toward the close of a quiet session today when professional traders entered the pits to reduce outstanding short lines. Operations were mainly of an evening-up nature for the week-end.

Corn finished 5/8 to 1 1/4 higher, January $1.32 7/8 to 1/2, and oats were up 5/8 to 1 1/8, August 75 1/8. There was no trade in barley.

Corn: January 1.32 7/8 to 1/2, March 1.33 1/4 to 1.33.

Oats: October 75 1/8, September 73, November 72 1/8 to 1/4, December 72 3/8, March 72 7/8 to 73 1/8.

Barley: November 1.27 1/2, December 1.27 1/2, March 1.27 1/2.

ELLENDER STARTS MONTH OF VISITING

HOUMA, La., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Sen. Allen J. Ellender announced today that he had begun a state-wide tour of his constituency to mingle with the people.

His visiting started this week-end in Assumption, LaFourche and Terrebonne parishes and will last through the month, Ellender said.

The senator said in a statement that this is his first opportunity to tour since 1937 because of legislative duties.

He added:

"There is no significance to this trip through Louisiana other than my desire to mingle with our people and a feeling of obligation on my part to meet and discuss with my constituency important legislation and impressions of world conditions I gained during my recent trip around the world."

If your broom has become a little limp, dip it in a pail of boiling soda water and dry it in the sun.

UPPER LEFT: Mrs. Harold Clarence Kinne, Jr., the former Miss Sarah Ellen Gunby, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Thomas Standifer Gunby, whose wedding on August 10 at the First Methodist Church was one of the season's most fashionable events.

LOWER LEFT: Mrs. Houston Terry, Jr., a July bride, is the former Miss Helen Tippit, daughter of Mr. T. L. Tippit, whose marriage to Dr. Terry was solemnized in Fort Worth, Tex., where the couple are making their home.

CENTER: Miss Martha Thompson, who has received outstanding recognition as a Louisiana State University student. She holds the president's position of Phi Gamma chapter of Chi Omega, national social sorority, Baptist Student Union, and Highland Hall on the L. S. U. campus. She was a representative this summer at the national convention of Chi Omega, Spring Lake, N. J., and the Baptist Student retreat, Ridgecrest, N. C. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Thompson.

LOWER RIGHT: Miss Joyce Trichel, recent attractive visitor in the home of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Wolff, who now holds a position with Delta Air Lines in Miami, Fla., following her transfer from the Shreveport office of that company.

BEAUTIFULLY APPOINTED TEA IN THE H. B. MILES HOME HONORS MISS FREIDA WELCH

Miss Freida Welch was a charming honoree at the beautifully appointed tea given recently by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Miles in their home on South First street, West Monroe. The occasion, planned with considerable artistry, was in compliment to the bride-elect, whose marriage to Mr. Haywood Brinson Miles, Jr., will be celebrated Aug. 25.

The spacious reception suite held attractive arrangements of pineapple and ginger lilies, pink radiance roses and feverfew. In the sun parlor white asters, tuberoses and feverfew were used effectively.

Miss Patsy Lee, wearing pretty white net over taffeta and with a garland of white flowers in her hair, welcomed more than one hundred fifty guests who called during the hours. The hostess wore a white crepe gown with corsage of blue and white blossoms. Miss Welch was lovely in white crepe fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her corsage was of white carnations.

A bridal theme was developed in the dining room with white and green predominating. Butterfly lilies in a low bowl were used on the buffet.

The lace covered table had a unique centerpriece, a large satin wedding ring encircling a pyramidal arrangement of wedding bells covered with white satin ribbons. Graceful sprays of fern outlined the decor. On either side tall white tapers burned in crystal holders.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Rodney Cline, wearing a striking grey crepe gown and Mrs. D. N. Barron, in pink georgette and lace. Ther corsages were of white carnations. Crystal trays containing an assortment of sandwiches and individual cakes embossed in valley lilies were passed among the guests.

Assisting in extending courtesies were Mrs. J. W. Musselwhite, who wore a becoming blue model, Mrs. Richard Venable, who chose a yellow gown, and Misses Carolyn Green, Dell Nelson and Virginia Bogan, who were in pastel gowns with blossoms in their hair. Others assisting were Mrs. D. F. Dennis, Mrs. Sybil Lee and Mrs. Harold Robers, who wore attractive summer prints.

Mrs. Clyde Henderson is a patient in Room 204 at St. Francis Sanitarium where she recently underwent a major operation. She is now able to receive visitors.

ENGAGEMENTS AND WEDDINGS OCCUPY PROMINENT PLACE AMONG LATE AUGUST EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Edelen announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Shirley Marie, to Mr. James E. Tolson, son of Mr and Mrs. J. T. Tolson of Monroe. The wedding will be solemnized at 4 p. m on August 25 at the First Methodist Church of this city.

Miss Edelen is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and Bish Mathis Institute. She is presently employed by the United Gas Pipeline Company.

Mr. Tolson is also a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School. He was discharged early this year from the U. S. army following several months service in the European theater of operations.

A wedding of marked simplicity was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon August 14, when Miss Louise Smelser and Mr. Jack Haynes were united in marriage in the First Methodist Church of this city. Dr. A. M. Serex, pastor, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends.

The bride wore a beautiful suit in an advanced fall model with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left on an extended tour of the West where they will visit a sister of the bride in Los Angeles, Calif.

The following wedding invitation is extended:

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ernest Weldon of Bernice request the honor of your presence at the wedding of their daughter, Christine, to Mr. John Lee Caldwell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Caldwell of Farmerville and Bernice which will be solemnized on Friday, August 23 at 9:30 a. m. at the Pine Grove Baptist Church near Bernice.

Friends and relatives are invited through this medium.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brown Fleming of Ferriday announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Sevier Fleming, to Mr. James Willis Hammett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Galloway Hammett of Shreveport at 7 o'clock in the evening of Wednesday, August 28 at Stanton Hall in Natchez.

Mr. Fleming, father of the bride-elect, is a former mayor of Ferriday and he served as state senator from the Fifth Louisiana district for eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Claude Lancaster of Waterproof, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary, to Mr. John Harry Laughlin of Bloomfield, Ind.

The marriage will take place on August 25, at six o'clock in the evening in a ceremony on the lawn of the family home at Lake St. John.

Frank L. Mullen, a law student at Louisiana State University, and former captain in the army is now at home with his mother, Mrs. Maude Mullen, enjoying several weeks' vacation before returning to L. S. U. in the fall.

Miss Fuller, Of Clarks, Is Bride Of Robert Head In Arizona Ceremony

Of interest is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Bobbie Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Fuller of Clarks, La., and Mr. Robert Head, son of Mrs. J. M. Head Sr., which was solemnized in the home of the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Mabel Head Stack, of Phoenix, Ariz., on August 6. Rev. C. B. Holland, pastor of Garfield Methodist Church, officiated in the presence of only relatives and close friends.

Nuptial music was played by Miss Kay Connaly, an outstanding musician of Phoenix.

Miss Sybil Head, the bridegroom's cousin, formerly of Monroe and now of Phoenix, was the bride's only attendant.

Mr. T. D. Finn of Phoenix served the bridegroom as best man.

The bride wore a white street-length dress and an off-the-face hat. Her flowers were pink carnations.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Nevada and San Diego, Calif., and are now at home at 2830 San Fernando road, Los Angeles, 4, where Mr. Head is associated with the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

The bride is a graduate of Clarks High School and she attended Northeast Junior College. The groom attended Neville High School. He was a staff sergeant in the medical detachment of the Louisiana National Guard. He received his discharge from the army early this year after serving eighteen months overseas.

About one in ten of the falls causing death or injury takes place in the kitchen.

Miss McKeithen Is August Bride

Impressive Church Ceremony Unites Popular Local Couple In Marriage

Interest is enlisted in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Natalie McKeithen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McKeithen of this city, and Mr. James Eastwood, son of Mrs. Sybil Eastwood of West Monroe, which was solemnized at the Stone Avenue Methodist Church on August 11, at high noon, with Rev. I. A. Patton, visiting minister, officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

Floor baskets of white asters flanked with white tapers in branched candelabra formed the background for the exchange of the marriage vows.

Miss Sara Sones, pianist, wearing pastel crepe with corsage of pink asters, rendered a concert of prenuptial music and accompanied Mr. D. H. Sones, who sang, "I Love You Truly."

Miss Ruth Yeager, close friend of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a pastel lime street-length dress with black accessories and a corsage of pale pink asters tied with short lengths of white satin ribbon. Mr. Carlton McKeithen, brother of the bride, served the groom as best man.

The bride wore a lovely dress of white crepe, with which she used navy accessories and a necklace that had been worn by her mother as a bride. Her corsage was of pink amaryllis lilies and tuberoses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents for members of the two families and the wedding party. The dining table, overlaid with white lace, was centrally adorned with a beautifully embossed cake. Tall white tapers burned on either side. Mrs. H. C. Hughes presided at the crystal punch bowl at one end of the table.

Guests were privileged to view at this time the numerous lovely gifts received by the young couple.

Mrs. Eastwood changed her wedding dress for a light blue model with which she wore navy accessories. The young couple left for Baton Rouge, where they will make their home for the present.

The bride attended Neville High school and a technical school in Springfield, Mo. She held a responsible position with Western Union Telegraph Company until recently, when she accepted a state position.

Mr. Eastwood graduated from Ouachita Parish High School and Northeast Junior College. He will enter his senior year as a commerce student at Louisiana State University this fall. He served in the U. S. Army for three years, spending nearly two years in the European theater.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES TAKE A. A. U. W. PRESIDENT AND DELEGATES TO LONDON

Three prominent members of the American Association of University Women went to London last month to attend international meetings. National president of the organization, Dr. Helen C. White of the University of Wisconsin, was appointed by the state department as a technical adviser to the Preparatory Commission of the United Nation Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization. In assisting in mapping out plans for the organization of UNESCO, Dr. White advised particularly in the fields of letters and philosophy. She also visited Belgium, Luxemburg and France in connection with her appointment. Dr. White is professor of English at the University of Wisconsin and author of "A Watch in the Night," "Not Built with Hands," and other books.

Dr. Meta Glass who, until her resignation, was for many years president of Sweet Briar College, represented the A. A. U. W. at a council meeting of the International Federation of University Women held in London during July 28-31.

Dean Margaret Corwin of the New Jersey College for Women also was present at the I. F. U. W. conference as convener of the exchange committee, which arranges for international exchange of lecturers and teachers.

This was the first I. F. U. W. council meeting since the war. Delegates from twenty-four national associations of university women attended and reports were made on how these organizations functioned while their countries were at war. The Ceylon Federation of University Women applied for admission and the Italian Federation for readmission to I. F. U. W. membership.

Crosby Hall, I. F. U. W. headquarters in London, was reopened for this meeting after having been used by the British government during the war to house members of the Women's Royal Naval Service.

Wedding Solemnized At First Methodist Church Is Brilliant August Event

Miss Gunby Weds Mr. Harold Kinne, Jr.

Large Concourse Of Friends And Relatives Attend Reception In The Gunby Home

A brilliant wedding, characterized by beauty of detail, was celebrated at the First Methodist Church when Miss Sarah Ellen Gunby, only daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Thomas Standifer Gunby, became the bride of Mr. Harold Clarence Kinne, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clarence Kinne, Sr., of Pawtucket, R. I.

The double ring ceremony was impressively solemnized on Saturday, August 10, at four o'clock in the afternoon with Dr. A. M. Serex, pastor, officiating.

While the groomsmen, Lt. (j. g.) Stephen Ellis, Ens. Richard Ellis, Mr. Thomas C. Standifer, and Mr. Russell Cutler Kinne, seated the concourse of relatives and friends, Mrs. John Sholars, organist, rendered a prenuptial concert, including several favorite selections of the bride. She also accompanied Mr. E. M. Wooten, who sang in splendid voice, "Yours Is My Heart Alone" and "Because." The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used for the recessional.

Southern smylax formed a picturesque background for the exchange of vows. Gleaming white cathedral tapers in tall brass candelabra adorned the altar where white standards holding blue feverfew, white asters and tuberoses were used effectively. At either end of the ivy covered communion rail were tall baskets which held large ferns that fell in graceful sprays. The pews reserved for members of the family and close friends were marked with clusters of flowers and white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Gunby, mother of the bride, wore a model of handsome black crepe fashioned along directoire lines and studded with white beads. Her corsage was of white carnations and tuberoses. Mrs. Kinne, mother of the groom, wore a becoming poudre blue crepe and a corsage of pink carnations.

Miss St. Claire Hayden, who served as maid of honor, wore a model of delicate blue silk net over satin. The tightly fitted basque had short puffed sleeves and a yoke that was encircled in ruffles. It was joined to a long, billowy skirt. Across her hair she wore a matching blue satin band with white carnations on one side. She carried an exquisite bouquet of white carnations and feverfew caught with long blue satin streamers. The bridesmaids, Miss Alice Ker LeSassier, Miss Betty Firnberg, Miss Joan Boardman and Miss Satchie Naiden, wore gowns identical to that of the bridesmaid. Mr. Leon Norman McKenzie, Jr., of Pawtucket, R. I., served the groom as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. George Gunby, in the absence of her father, who is on duty with the Sixth Division Artillery stationed near Korea.

Her wedding gown of white chiffon was princess style with high neckline embroidered in pearls and long tight sleeves. The full skirt swept in court train over which fell a billow fingertip veil of illusion caught to a coronet embroidered in pearls. For "something old" she wore a bracelet, the gift of her paternal grandfather to his bride on her wedding day. Her bouquet, a work of artistry, was fashioned of white tuberoses tied with wide satin ribbons and tulle with a shower of satin ribbon streamers and tuberoses.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents on Jackson street.

Receiving the guests in the entrance hall were the bride's aunts, Miss Edith Gunby wore a beautifully embroidered blue voile gown, which came from the Philippines, and a corsage of white carnations. Miss Olive Gunby's gown was of white mesh with a yoke of handsome embroidery and her corsage was of white carnations.

Receiving with the bridal party in the living room, which was decorated with white dahlias and lilies, were Mrs. Thomas Gunby, Mrs. Harold Kinne, Sr., and Mrs. George Gunby, who was wearing a long white eyelet gown and a corsage of blue lilies.

The bride's table in the dining room was overlaid with a handsome linen cloth. On a silver tray in the center rested the tiered cake that was beautifully embossed and surmounted with a lacy wedding bell. The confection had been decorated by Mrs. Ellen Larche, a close friend of the family. It was encircled by graceful sprays of fern and butterfly lilies. White tapers glowed from silver candle sticks to enhance the effect and silver compotes held mints embossed in valley lilies.

Presiding at the table was Mrs. John Salisbury who wore a long blue silk gown with white carnations in her hair.

Individual cakes embossed in white roses and delicate green leaves were served with ices by Misses Byrnie Handy, Rosemary Worsham, Suzanne LeSassier and Clarice Slagle who wore long frocks in pastel shades and white carnations in their hair.

After cutting the wedding cake the bride tossed her bouquet which was caught by Miss Suzanne LeSassier.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinne left by motor on a honeymoon trip and after September 1 will be at home in Providence, R. I., where Mr. Kinne will resume his studies at Brown University.

The bride traveled in a two-piece costume of navy taffeta, off-the-face blue hat and a white ruby throated orchid. Her bag and shoes were of red lizard. The bride is a descendant of an old southern family. Her maternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Turnbull Towles of New Orleans and Ouida plantation of West Feliciana parish. Her paternal grandparents were the late Judge and Mrs. Andrew Augustus Gunby of Monroe. The bride is a high school graduate of El Paso, Tex., and she attended Colorado College, Colorado Springs, Colo., after which she received the degree from the University of Texas, Austin. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

After graduating from East High School, Pawtucket, the groom was a student at Brown University until he entered the armed forces. He holds membership in Sigma Nu fraternity.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Kinne, Sr., Mr. Leon McKenzie, Jr., and Mr. Russell C. Kinne, Pawtucket; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart, St. Francisville, La.; Mrs. Sarah Towles Reed and Miss Roberta Towles, Weyanoke plantation and New Orleans; Mrs. W. M. LeSassier, Miss Alice LeSassier and Miss Suzanne LeSassier, Live Oak Plantaton; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ellis, Lt. (j. g.) Stephen Ellis, Ens. Richard Ellis, Mr. Thomas Ellis, Mrs. Sam George, Miss Winnifred Brandon, Miss Lucy Brandon, Mr. Edward Sanford, New Orleans; Mrs. Baker Marsh, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kimball, Miss Elaine Kimball, Mr. George Kimball, Lake Charles; Mrs. Lewis Langford, Miss Sara Louise Langford, Jackson, Miss.; Mrs. Kendrick James, Houston, Tex.; Miss Leona Gullatt, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hayes, Mound, La.; Miss St. Claire Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Currier, Mrs. T. S. Sholars, Mrs. Helen M. Raymond, Mrs. Hansford Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Flournoy, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. John Goode, Shreveport.

Just returning from a month's vacation of motoring in the west are Mrs. E. M. Steen, her daughter, Evelyn, and son, Malcolm. They spent two weeks in Berkeley, Calif., as guests of Mrs. Steen's daughter, Mrs. K. E. Booth, and Mr. Booth, and made the acquaintance of their two and one-half-year-old daughter, Sandra. Trips were made to Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, San Diego and Hollywood, and they went as far north as San Francisco. They enjoyed stops in Colorado Springs, Colo., Estes Park, and Boulder, Colo., where Mr. Booth is a senior at the University of Colorado. During the 6,000-mile trip the group used their movie camera for a record of their scenic vacation.

Recent Bride Given Lovely Courtesies

Miss Sarah Ellen Gunby Is Constantly Feted During Prenuptial Days

Prenuptial courtesies showered upon Miss Sarah Ellen Gunby completely filled her engagement days. Her brilliant marriage to Mr. Harold Clarence Kinne, Jr., was a fitting climax to weeks of elaborate entertainment for the couple.

One of the most outstanding functions ever given in Monroe was the banquet honoring Miss Gunby and Mr. Kinne, with Mrs. R. L. Carr and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lawrence as hosts.

The beauty of the Virginia Hotel roof gardens was enhanced by colorful bouquets placed at vantage points, with long baskets of asters and calendula on the fernbanked mantel being especially distinctive. Fruit punch, sherry and canapes were passed among the guests as they mingled on the moonlight terrace.

Miss Gunby wore on this occasion a billowy blue tulle evening gown Her mother, Mrs. Thomas Gunby, was in dusty rose, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Harold Kinne, Sr., in white lace. Mrs. Carr's black lace showed to advantage her distinguished beauty, and Mrs. Lawrence was regal in pink chiffon with flowing draperies of coral.

As the guests approached the long banquet table there was a hush of admiration. The table was centered with silver candelabra holding pink tapers and an immense decor of asters and lilies in shades of pink. Along its full length were containers holding artistic arrangements of the same blossoms among which were placed pink candles. A six course dinner was followed by coffee and nuts which were served from the buffet.

Besides the hosts and honorees, the guests present were: Mrs. Thomas Gunby, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Kinne Sr., Mr. and Mrs. John Salisbury, Mrs. W. H. de Graffenried, Mrs. Thomas S. Sholars, Mrs. John Sholars, Miss Olive Gunby, Miss Edith Gunby, Miss St. Claire Hayden, Miss Betty Firnberg, Miss Joan Boardman, Miss Alice Ker Le Sassier, Miss Suzanne Le Sassier, Mr. Thomas C. Standifer, Mr. Leon McKenzie, Jr., Lt (j. g.) Stephen Ellis, Ens. Richard Ellis, Lt. Nelson Abell, Mr. Kent Breard, Mr. Burt Sperry.

At a beautifully appointed luncheon given by Mrs. George Gunby and Miss St. Claire Hayden for Miss Gunby a color theme of green and white was developed.

Serving as a centerpiece was a large angel food cake embossed in a delicate shade of green and encircled by a wreath of feverfew. The cutting of the confection by the guest of honor when the dessert was served was a pretty ceremony.

On this occasion Miss Gunby presented her attendants with monogrammed silver perfume bottles.

Following luncheon, guests were entertained with contests: Winner of the first, a wedding of the flowers, was Miss Gunby, who was given Elizabeth Barret Browning's "Sonnets from the Portuguese." Miss Alice Ker Le Sassier was winner of the second contest recipes on how to keep a husband. She was presented with a book, "Married at Leisure" by Ledderer, for the following poem:

"The first and most important, is to feed him;
Secondly, love him and heed him.
Third is, of course, don't boss him
too much;
And last, but not least, don't cost him too much."

Original cards formed of two white satin sachets tied together and decorated with feverfew marked places for the following: Miss Sarah Ellen Gunby, Miss Alice Ker Le Sassier, Miss Suzanne Le Sassier, Miss Joan Boardman, Miss Betty Firnberg and Miss St. Claire Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Salisbury entertained Miss Gunby and Mr. Kinne with a refreshing swimming party. After a delightful boatride up the river and a swim off a sand bar, a barbecue supper was served.

Upon their departure Mrs. Salisbury presented Miss Gunby with a corsage of daisies and calla lillies fashioned of vegetables. It was as attractive and dainty as it was clever.

Public Invited To Hear National Representative On Juvenile Delinquency

Citizens of the Twin Cities are looking forward to hearing Mr. Frederick Ward, Jr., discuss facilities for juvenile detention when he speaks Tuesday, August 20 at 8 p. m. in the Health Center at the meeting of the League of Women Voters.

Mr. Ward is southern field representative of the National Probation Association and is an expert on juvenile delinquency and detention facilities.

Judge Barnett's bill for a series of juvenile courts in Louisiana will be explained.

This is an open meeting and members of men's clubs, recreation leaders, teachers, school and city officials are cordially invited to be present. Miss Myrtle Rodgers, president of the Monroe League of Women Voters, Mrs. Fagan Cox, chairman of the afternoon group, and Mrs. Aimee Cook, president of the West Monroe League of Women Voters will welcome citizens interested in the juvenile delinquency problem.

TEEN-AGE GIRLS FIND FUN IN PLANNING AND PREPARING BREAKFAST EVEN IN SUMMER

During the summer teen-age girls have been enjoying cooking classes sponsored by the Red Cross nutrition committee. The program was based on six lessons revolving around the planning, preparation and serving of nutritious breakfasts to their families.

Discussions and practical work covered beverages; fruits, including citrus and dried cereals, comprising oatmeal, cream of wheat and rice; eggs; hot breads, including biscuits, corn bread and bran muffins, and finally the preparation of an entire breakfast. During this sixth assignment, each girl planned, prepared and ate the meal. Menus are usually varied, but they are always planned to have the proper amount of vitamin content.

There is a short lecture period at each meeting at which time the importance of various foods is discussed. Special emphasis is given to the effect that a good breakfast is of vital importance to the growing child as well as adults. Recent surveys have shown that most accidents at work occur before 11 a. m. and that victims usually have had little or no breakfast.

Mrs. Mildred G. Swift, city home demonstration agent, is conducting these classes. Mrs. Swift has had ten years of experience in home economics and has taught Home Ec. in the Ouachita Parish High School. She has had a great deal of experience with youngsters and has cooperated with young folks' activities, especially Girl Scouts. Girl Scouts finishing this 12-hour course receive their cook badge from the Scout organization.

All who complete the course receive a certificate from Red Cross area headquarters in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Swift also includes in her instruction—table etiquette and proper serving of foods.

Parents of girls who have completed the course are enthusiastic in the good accomplished and have found that in time of need the girls have been able to prepare the breakfast for the family without assistance from Mom.

At present the American Red Cross is only able to take care of eight girls at a time because of lack of equipment. Only one four-burner small range and a two-burner hot plate are being used. Mrs. Swift states that she could handle as many as twenty girls if additional equipment were available. In the event anyone has a stove in good condition which could be loaned or donated to the nutrition service, it would be appreciated.

The present class has been suspended because of the precaution against polio. Members of this group are Kathleen Cline, Genie Comer, Mary Katherine Wheelis, Phoebe Miller, Amalie Nichols, Betty Patterson, Helen Gandy and Gladys Brady.

If desired and the cooperation of the school system is forthcoming, the Red Cross nutrition committee will plan to continue these classes thuogh-out the year.

Miss Ruby Lee Halley And Mr. Jack Robertson Wed In Home Ceremony

Of interest to a wide circle of friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruby Lee Halley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rube Halley, formerly of West Monroe and now of Delhi, La., and Mr. Jack Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Robertson of Delhi, on Saturday evening, July 27 at the home of the bride's parents.

The impressive double-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. C. E. Autrey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, West Monroe, in the presence of only relatives and close friends.

The couple exchanged vows before an improvised altar formed of greenery and floral arrangements of hydrangeas, roses and specimen dahlias.

Miss Melba Beaird of West Monroe, who was the birde's only attendant, wore an off-white costume trimmed in nailheads with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow lilies. Mr. Douglas Robertson of "Vicksburg, Miss., served his brother as best man.

The birde wore an attractive street-length model of blue crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and tuberoses.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Both the bride's and groom's mothers were dressed in aqua crepe and their corsages were of white carnations.

The bride's table was covered in a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink radiance roses and fern. Pink candles in crystal holders on the buffet further developed the color theme. A pretty ceremony was the cutting of the three-tiered wedding cake that was embossed in pink roses and surmounted with bride and groom figurines. From a large crystal bowl punch was served by Miss Lanie Eppinette and Miss Dean Beaird, close friends of the bride. Miss Eppinette was wearing a pink and white mesh frock and Miss Beaird wore black crepe with white embroidery trimming.

For traveling Mrs. Robertson chose a beige shantung suit with brown accessories.

The couple will make their home in Delhi with Mrs. Robertson's parents.

The bride is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and Bish Mathis Institute. She was employed by a local firm before going to Delhi to accept a position in her father's business.

Mr. Robertson received his discharge from the armed service a short time ago after seeing overseas duty for several months.

MISS JEAN BONHAM SPEAKS TO LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS ON SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

Miss Jean Bonham gave an informative discussion of Social Security benefits at a recent meeting of the Monroe League of Women Voters in the Health Center. This feature was in keeping with the organization's interest in matters pertaining to individual betterment.

The speaker said that the Social Security law provides for the general welfare by establishing a system of federal old-age benefits, and by enabling states to make more adequate provision for aged persons, blind persons, dependent and crippled children, maternal and child welfare, public health and the administration of their unemployment compensation laws; to establish a Social Security Board; to raise revenue, and for other purposes.

Deductions from the salaries of those coming under the Social Security law are made by the employer, who in addition pays an excise tax on wages paid his employes to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The federal government appropriates various amounts for the administration of the various benefits by different federal agencies.

Miss Bonham outlined the benefits administered by the Department of Public Welfare, 109 Louisville—old-age assistance; aid to dependent children; aid to the blind and child welfare.

Federal old age and Survivors Insurance Benefits are administered by the Federal Security Agency and Social Security Board, 224 S. Grand. The Louisiana State Employment Service, 230 S. Grand, administers Unemployment Compensation and Vocational Rehabilitation. Maternal and Child Health; Crippled Childrens Service and Public Health Work are administered by the Health Unit of the State Board of Health.

Miss Bonham discussed each of these benefits and an open forum followed.

Announcement was made of the meeting August 20, when Mr. Frederick Ward, Jr., southern field representative of the National Probation Association, will address an open meeting in the Health Center auditorium at 8 p. m.

Plans were made for the meeting on September 3 at which time Mr. C. E. McKenzie and Mr. Otto Passman will speak on their platforms in the coming election. This meeting will be open to all citizens and it is hoped that "Candidates Night" will prove a huge success.

Miss Myrtle Rodgers, president of the organization, presided at the meeting.

WEDDING IN COLORADO SPRINGS UNITES PFC. E. JANE KITTS AND M/SGT. HERBERT E. DILL

Claiming widespread interest is the marriage of Pfc. E. Jane Kitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kitts of Fairport, N. Y., and M/Sgt. Herbert E. Dill, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dill of this city, which was celebrated at the First Methodist Church in Colorado Springs, Colo., on August 10 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with Dr. C. E. Albertson, pastor, officiating.

Serving the bride as her matron of honor was Mrs. George B. Williams, who wore a blue net gown and a headdress fashioned as a Dutch bonnet. She carried a bouquet of pink tea roses.

1st/Sgt. George B. Williams was best man. The ushers were 1st/Sgt. Marvin J. Womack and M/Sgt. Edwin D. Wiggins.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Elias George, wore the traditional wedding gown of Duchess satin and net designed in Princess style, with sweetheart neckline and long petal pointed sleeves. The skirt swept in court train, over which fell a billowy veil of illusion caught to a lovely Dutch bonnet headdress. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchd.

Immediately after the ceremony, the wedding party was entertained at the WAC mess hall at Fifteenth Air Force headquarters. A beautiful reception at the NCO Club followed.

The bride and groom left for Oklahoma City, Okla., where they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Witherspoon, aunt and uncle of the bride. They were met there by the parents of the groom and the mother of the bride. The couple returned to Colorado Springs where they will make their home.

Prior to entering the Army Air Forces, the bride was employed by the Eastman Kodak Company and as secretary for the Gundlach Manufacturning Company. She received her basic training at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, after which she was sent to Colorado Sprngs. First she was stationed at Peterson Field, and was later assigned to headquarters ot the Fifteenth Air Forces. Presently the bride is serving as hostess in the NCO Club at this station.

The groom was employed by the Southern Craft Paper Company prior to his entering military service in June, 1939. Stationed first at Barksdale Field, Shreveport, he was sent to McDill Field, Tampa, Fla., for two and one-half years. In the spring of 1943 he left for the European theater of operations, returning to the states in November of 1945. After re-enlisting in the Army Air Forces, he went to Colorado Springs, where he works in the base personnel section at Fifteenth Air Force headquarters.

Recently returning from a delightful six-week stay at Camp Joyzelle in the Ozarks are Misses Alice O'Kelly, Maurine Linquist, Patricia Wadley and Clayton Campbell.

Recent attractive visitors in this city were Miss Frances Welsh, of Magnolia, Ark., who was a guest of Miss Joy Bernhardt, and Miss Virginia Hargrove, of El Dorado, Ark., who was Miss Vettye Bernhardt's guest. They were former roommates at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, where Miss Joy Bernhardt graduated in June with Cum Laude honors. Her sister will return to school there this fall.

For drying tumblers dish towels should be long enough to wipe both the inside and outside at the same time and to cover the hands so that no finger prints are left on the glass.

If you will keep your dustpan well waxed, you will find it always looks clean, and the dust and dirt slips from the pan more easily.

REV. E. L. TANNER, PASTOR

The Assembly of God Church and its pastor has endeavored to give to this community unselfish service for the past twenty-two years. We can truly say with the Psalmist David "Oh how great is Thy goodness, which Thou hast laid up for them that fear Thee; which Thou hast wrought for them that trust in Thee before the sons of men." Ps. 31:19.

Today we extend to our many friends, and to the new citizens of our city, a most cordial welcome to worship with us. If you are a stranger to us we want to get acquainted with you; we believe you will enjoy the spirituality of our program. We have only one theme that is "Jesus". What this old world needs is Jesus.

REV. AND MRS. A. C. BRISTOL

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Bristol begins a revival meeting with us today. Rev. Bristol is from Boston, Mass. Mrs. Bristol is a Texas girl. Both are talented young people with a ministry that is being greatly blessed of God.

DECONTROL

and former long-time government worker, put the same query to business and trade representatives.

Mead, Republican member of the board, who has served on many advisory groups here dating back to the blue-eagle days of NRA, was most outspoken of the three in his questioning.

He noted at one point that pork prices remained high since OPA ceilings expired June 30. He said these were "excessively high" and wanted to know how supplies could be increased and prices brought down.

Chairman Thompson frequently raised questions about public reception of continued or additional price controls under peacetime conditions.

He asked one housewife if she and her sisters "are alert to the extent that they (controls) would tend to level off prices of these various commodities if one should happen to go off control and the other be kept on control * * * or is there a tendancy to go ahead and buy what they want regardless of price."

The housewife assured the board that women buyers watch prices with eagle eyes and buy substitutes, if possible when one item gets too high.

Bell also showed much concern for the consumers as he grilled witnesses about what decontrol would do to living costs. Several times he commented that state price controls aim at price floors or minima rather than protecting consumers.

Both Bell and Mead came to the defense of OPA price ceilings in the past when these were sharply criticized by farm and industry spokesmen. One milk producer witness suggested Bell wanted to "enslave" farmers by seeing they got fair prices but remained under OPA control.

"No, I am anxious to return to a free economy, also," Bell replied.

Bell, who served as both undersecretary of the treasury and acting budget director, raised the question of dropping or curtailing the government subsidies on foods with more than a dozen different witnesses.

He suggested by questions that even if controls are restored the treasury need not pay food bills through subsidies if prices are raised enough to net producers a fair return.

Mead also showed interest in suggestions for ending food subsidies.

When one consumer witness argued that many low income families could not afford milk, good meats and other food unless the government paid part of the cost through subsidy, Bell asked:

"Does that become a relief problem or a price control problem?"

He also questioned how long witnesses thought subsidies should continue and if they aided distibution or increased production.

Mead, after the first two days of hearings, suggested by questions that some prices to consumers might go higher if placed back under OPA control. He pointed out the new OPA act requires a reasonable profit for everybody from the farmer producer all down the line to the consumer.

The three-member board worked over the week-end on its decision which will be announced Tuesday night after most commodity markets have closed. Then it will decide whether these commodities, free from price ceilings since June 30, will again be controlled: grains, livestock, dairy products, and cottonseed and soybeans.

Before it allows any products to return to price control, it must find that its prices have risen unreasonably while free of ceilings, that the supply is short and ceilings can be enforced, and that the action is "in the public interest."

The board cannot fix these price ceilings. That is the job for OPA but the board must decide what subsidies, if any, are to be paid.

WINDOW ROBBER

bottle that had been used to smash the window was found with pieces of glass on the pavement. The 100-by-50-inch plate glass was insured.

At the police station the confessed robber identified himself as Roy Smith, 18, of Pascagoula, Miss. He said he had been on a hitch-hiking trip to Texas and had been picked up by a car and brought to Monroe at 8 p. m., Friday. He was transferred from the city jail to parish prison Saturday to await arraignment in district court.

The quick and effective action that resulted in apprehension of the robber was commended by Chief of Police J. D. Busby, who complimented Officer Avery for the second time within a few weeks. The first occasion was for the discovery of the "skylight" burglary at the Renfrow department store. Avery has been a member of the force only 10 months, joining shortly after his discharge from the navy.

Sam Rubin, owner of the R & A store, learned of the robbery when he arrived home by plane Saturday morning from a business trip to Chicago that had included a few days' fishing at Brainerd, Minn.

for at least a year; Trans-Jordan, blocked by Russia; and Albania, which has been criticized sharply by Great Britain, the United States and Greece. Greece is not a member of the council, but has submitted two strong memoranda opposing entry of its neighbor into the 51-nation body.

Russia also has indicated she would oppose Eire and Portugal. Two others —Sweden and Iceland—were not contested directly within the committee but were subject to reconsideration by the Soviet Union.

ECONOMY

contracts until Oct. 1, while the projects are reviewed.

The economy campaign was greeted skeptically in Republican and some other quarters. The national association for manufacturers, for instance, said in the "Nam News" that the small deficit foreseen "unquestionably is over-optimistic."

In each of the eight cases where special letters were sent—mostly agencies concerned with public works—Mr. Truman asked a prompt reply describing the steps being taken.

BRITISH

promised to cooperate in the transshipment operation, after the district commissioner had addressed them. Later, he said, when launches and landing barges approached the schooners, the immigrants flatly refused to leave their ships, shouted insults at the soldiers and sailors, and called the police "Nazi" and "S. S. men."

"We then decided to abandon the effort because the whole thing was planned on the basis of receiving cooperation from the immigrants."

He denied, however, Jewish reports that the refusal of the immigrants to board the waiting troopships had been accompanied by violence in which missiles were hurled at the soldiers, sailors and police.

Thousands of Jews gathered early in the day for a demonstration called to protest the new transshipment.

The "Voice of Israel," clandestine radio of Hagana, Jewish underground organization, broadcast calls at 15 minute intervals throughout the morning for the meeting, but warned Jews against going into the harbor area or against making "useless sacrifices." It told them that there was "nothing you can do just now."

Amplifiers in shop windows and on rooftops blared forth the Hagana announcements and a running commentary of what was taking place in the harbor, where British warships and police guarded the troopships Empire Rival and Empire Heywood which were to take the immigrants to Cyprus. Some 1,200 Jews were deported on the same ships last Tuesday.

The mass demonstration, gathered inside barbed wire barricades, was addressed by an unseen speaker screened from view to prevent military or police interference. He angrily protested the new deportation, which he said was being carried out by a whole army of British using tanks, full equipment and five battleships. The voice told the crowd to be "prepared for anything and stand by for the next few hours."

The meeting broke up in relative quiet, however, after the speaker finished and the crowd sang "Hatikvah," the Jewish anthem.

QUICK, OPEN-ARMED WELCOME UNLIKELY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Prospects of a quick, open-armed welcome in the United States for Europe's homeless refugees appeared scant today, even as diplomatic experts grasped at signs that Anglo-American talks on the explosive Jewish-Palestine problem soon may be resumed.

Anxious diplomats in Washington seized upon a Paris report that British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin had conferred today with three top officials of the Jewish agency, to bolster their hopes that a stalemate on Palestine's problems has not frozen fast as yet.

Sources here with their fingers on the pulse of British official opinion, expressed certainty that Britain would rather turn back to the hope of working out an Anglo-American solution of what to do about European Jews than resort to two other alternatives, namely:

1. Continuation of the present state of affairs which has left the Holy Land in a state of open insurrection, with the British skating on thin ice attempting to placate the Jews on one hand while avoiding open warfare with the Arab world on the other.

2. Reference of the dynamite-laden problem of Palestine to the United Nations, where it could hardly avoid a full dress debate on British policy abroad—an issue into which Russia undoubtedly would step with the chance the Soviet would demand a hand in anything affecting the future of the near east.

In usually well informed diplomatic quarters here Bevin's meeting with the three agency officials—Rabbi Stephen Wise, Nathan Goldman and Berl Locker—was regarded as an indication of Britain's hope to reopen the Anglo-American talks.

Although Mr. Truman has announced formally that "this government has not presented any solution of its own," it has been learned unofficially that British Prime Minister Clement Attlee has been advised in general terms that this country would consider favorably:

1. A Palestine petition which would give the Jews a semi-independent state of approximately 1,800 square miles.

2. Authority for the administrators of the Jewish zone to control its immigration with a veto from Britain.

3. Financial support—up to $300,000,000, with $50,000,000 earmarked for Palestine alone—to improve and support the economic, educational and social standards of the Arab world.

4. A general discussion among the allied powers of steps to lower the immigration barriers against permanent establishment of homes by the balance of several hundred thousand Jews who could not find room in Palestine.

Any chance of this country increasing its quotas would necessarily depend upon an act of congress.

CASUALTIES

communities. x x x Let us forget what has happened."

A 9 p. m., to 4 a. m., curfew was imposed again tonight. Crowds had defied it last night.

Two newspaper offices were stoned in southern Calcutta, and there were repeated clashes at the northern end of Wellington street, a main thoroughfare. Military pickets were posted at important government offices.

Heavily-armed, steel-helmeted British troops, called in to support the harassed police, patrolled the streets in trucks and jeeps, their vehicles covered with wire mesh to fend off the missiles of the mobs.

Police published a stern order prohibiting the assembly of five or more persons who carried dangerous weapons. But Indians roaming the center of the city defied the order, arming themselves with heavy sticks and clubs. Looting of shops continued unabated.

Some sources said it would be a week before the trouble subsided fully.

One police officer, who had been on duty 30 hours without rest, said authorities were hard-pressed to cope with the removal of the bodies because the continued routing kept patrols constantly on the move.

"The best we can do is move the bodies to one side of the street," he said.

Ambulances and Red Cross trucks, manned by Indians, carried out their work only with great difficulty, because the intense feeling made anyone liable to attack.

One officer told of an attack in which several Moslems were killed. The Moslems had taken refuge in a building and remained there until police arrived and dispersed a crowd. The police moved on to another scene of disorder, and when the Moslems left the building, another crowd fell upon them and slaughtered them.

Fighting was particularly bitter on College street, where the burning of a mosque roused Moslems to fury. Police opened fire several times in attempts to disperse the crowds.

Transportation was at a standstill. The Sikhs, who monopolize the taxi business in Calcutta, crused about the city with carloads of fellow Sikhs, and no cabs were available for anyone else.

Some civilian cars bearing Europeans to their places of business moved about unmolested. At least one European went to work with a gun slung over his shoulder.

Few officers and business establishments were able to open this morning, however, because Indian help failed to report for work.

The violence which marked "direct action day" for the most part was confined to Calcutta. With a few exceptions, the observance was quiet throughout the rest of India.

ESCAPED GERMAN PRISONER CAUGHT

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—An escaped German prisoner of war, who had been working as a laborer for a cement manufacturing company here, was arrested today by F. B. I. agents.

They identified the prisoner as Egmont Horst, 33, of Koeningstein, Germany, who escaped from a prisoner of war camp in Bixby, Okla., November 6, 1945. The agents said Horst, who had been using the name Charles Robert Smith, told them he worked in a Kansas City, Mo., bowling alley before coming to New Orleans. He served as a sergeant in Rommel's Afrika Korps, and in the Polish and French campaigns.

The prisoner was turned over to army authorities at the New Orleans port of embarkation.

HITLER'S

dated July 16, 1940, of which a notation indicates only seven copies were made. It was to be transmitted by officer courier only.

"Since England, despite her military hopeless situation, still shows no signs of willingness to come to terms," the Fuehrer said at the outset, "I have decided to prepare a landing operation against England, and if necessary to carry it out."

The aim, he said, was to eliminate the English homeland as a base for war against Germany, and if deemed necessary to occupy it entirely. Hitler directed:

1. The landing should be on a broad front approximately from Ramsgate to the area west of the Isle of Wight, with the Luftwaffe in the role of artillery and the navy serving as engineers. Preparations were to be completed by mid-August.

2. In preparation, the R. A. F., must be overcome, mine-free channels created, mine barriers set up in the Straits of Dover and off England, the British coast dominated by big gun fire, and the British navy tied down and crippled as much as possible both at home and in the Mediterranean.

3. Under Hitler's over-all command, the operation would be led by the supreme land, air and navy commanders. Their staffs would be within 30 miles of his headquarters at Ziegenberg.

The Nazi leader directed the army and navy to prepare detailed plans, and stipulated that railway artillery supplemented by all available captured pieces should be got ready for action at the straits. He asked for proposals as to the use of parachute and glider forces.

Hitler eventually thought better of the idea. In less than a month Goering launched his Luftwaffe in an attempt to batter the British into submission from the air. With the loss of the battle of Britain Hitler turned against Russia.

bill, on FEPC, housing and minimum wage legislation, on limiting debate on the unsuccessful poll tax removal bill, and on four separate phases of the price control renewal issue, plus a CIO-opposed amendment to the British loan measure which would have given the U. S. an option on British bases.

In the House the dozen issues included four separate rollcalls on OPA, an appropriation opposed by the CIO for the House committee on un-American activities. Four rollcalls on legislation aimed directly at labor unions including the Case bill, legislation to impose price ceilings on existing homes, recommittal of the atomic energy bill which the CIO wanted to see passed, and a move which would have returned the employment service to states by last June.

5,000 SPECTATORS SEE FLIER KILLED

CONCORD, Mass., Aug. 17.—(AP)—An Army P-51 mustang fighter pilot, flying formation with another P-51 and a B-29 bomber at the New England air show, was killed tonight before 5,000 spectators in a crash on main line tracks of the Boston and Maine Railroad just ahead of the road's Chicago-Boston "Minute Man."

An employe of the New Haven Railroad who lives nearby flagged down the train before it reached the burning wreckage and torn roadbed.

An Army statement released at nearby Bedford Air Base, scene of the four-day show concluding tomorrow, said the cause of the crash had not been determined but that the fighter "crashed at an angle of approximately 70 degrees."

The pilot's name was withheld pending notification of next-of-kin.

Concord police said the plane tore up some 300 feet of eastbound track but damage to the westbound line was such that with slight repair trains would be able to move over it slowly.

The falling plane carried away communication lines as it crashed on the roadbed in the Lake Walden woods section.

Earl Spinney, a New Haven railroad employe who lives near the tracks, saw the plane fall, ran onto the railroad right of way and flagged down the Minute Man just before it reached the burning wreckage.

At Bedford air field, where the Army air show is being held, the craft was identified as a P-51 lightning, but all other official information was withheld pending issuance of a statement later tonight.

A Concord fireman said that the pilot was dead in the wreckage, which lay on the tracks.

LEGION WILL MEET

L. B. Faulk Post No. 13, American Legion, holds its first meeting under its new commander, Walter W. Kellogg, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the Legion Home. Initiation of new members will be a feature of the meeting, last on schedule until September 16, since the September 2 meeting falls on Labor Day and therefore is cancelled.

18 LABOR AGENTS FACE CONSPIRACY

DETROIT, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Eighteen officers and business agents of the A. F. of L. Teamsters Union were accused of an extortion conspiracy and violation of the state labor law in warrants announced tonight by Circuit Judge George B. Murphy.

Judge Murphy, who has been sitting as a one-man grand jury investigating charges of labor racketeering, said the warrants were the first of "what may prove to be a long series." The inquiry has been going on since June.

A grand jury investigation was ordered by the Wayne (Detroit) county courts after food merchants of the metropolitan area, protesting union tactics in an organizing drive, had accused the teamsters of illegal practices.

A $500,000 damage suit was brought against the union by the Detroit Retail Meat Merchants Association last May. The suit alleged a "coercive and monopolistic" campaign on the union's part in seeking "unlawful labor objectives."

The union had set out to organize the clerks of the metropolitan area's 6,000 food stores. A court injunction restrained the union from picketing the stores and from demanding that merchants buy $5 monthly permits from the union in order to pick up foodstuffs at markets.

Among those named in the grand jury's warrants were James Hoffa, business agent of the teamsters joint council 43, and Owen B. Brennan, president of the Food and Beverage Drivers Local 337.

of 600 population, making 250 homeless.

A four-year-old girl suffering from infantile paralysis made a hazardous 150 mile ambulance trip over rain slicked roads during the heavy rains in the St. Louis area. Flooded roads blocked direct routes between Centralia, Ill., the girl's home, and St. Louis and the trip required four times the normal distance.

Two youths were believed drowned in St. Louis when surging storm waters swept them into a storm sewer which empties into the Mississippi River. A Negro girl drowned at Elsberry, Mo., a man was electrocuted at Centralia, Ill., and another man was electrocuted in his flooded basement at Belleville, Ill.

The rains moved northward in Illinois, with several towns receiving from 2 to 4 inches overnight.

Meanwhile, much cooler weather was moving from Canada where fears of possible frost damage were expressed for the wheat crop in Alberta. A half inch of wet snow fell at Calgary.

The weather bureau redicted temperatures would lip to the middle fifties in the great lakes area by Sunday night and to the middle forties in the upper Mississippi Valley.

The foreign informant estimated the average strength of the Red army divisions at 5,000 men each with "mechanized divisions probably slightly smaller."

Deployment of the Russian troops east of Dzhulfa would place them near the head of rail and highway lines into Azerbaijan province, which the Russians evacuated last May.

The American military attache, Col. William T. Sexton, and three aides left here last week for Tabriz en route to the northern frontier. They were arrested by Azerbaijan Democrats in Tabriz last June 19 and later released.

Premier Ahmed Qavam is "greatly concerned" over the rumored Russian troop movements in the north and the British decision to move Indian troops into Basra, a highly placed diplomatic source said a boatload of troops arrived at Basra today, Tehran newspapers reported.

2 CHINABERRY BRANCHES INSUFFICIENT CLOTHING

COLUMBUS Ga., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Hot weather or not, a Columbus court ruled today that a shirt, tie and two chinaberry branches are insufficient clothing for street wear.

Police testified in recorder's court that they arrested a 50-year-old man when he walked down the street with one chinaberry branch in front and one behind and wearing only a shirt and necktie.

ritorial commissions again tried to limit the right to vote in commission only to countries which actually had been at war with former enemy states. France again objected, supported by Britain and the United States.

Voting with the Soviet Union against the Austran proposal were White Russia Poland, Czechoslovakia, the Ukraine, and Yugoslavia.

Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky declared the object of the proposal was to bring up Austria's claim to the South Tyrol "which was rejected by the council of foreign ministers."

He said that "if this is only a question of the South Tyrol, it would seem to me the most proper way would be to raise it before a commission. If the conference wants to invite Austria it can do it, but the Soviet delegation does not think it is necessary."

Hector McNeil of the British delegation asserted that failure to hear Austria on the future of the Italo-Austrian frontier would be "discrimination" by the peace conference because it had established a policy of "permitting both sides to be heard here."

U. S. State Department Counsellor Benjamin V. Cohen said the American viewpoint was that "Austria should have the right to present her views here. It seems to us that it would take less time to hear the views of Austria than to debate her right to be heard."

He added that "in the Moscow declaration we did regard Austria as a victim of Nazi aggression. I don't think we can deliberate here just how far Austria did contribute to her own liberation."

French Delegate Maurice Couve de Murville asserted "it would be impossible" not to invite Austria and listed these points in favor: Austria's "direct" interest in the frontier question and the fact that Italy has already been heard on the other side of the question.

5 KILLED

twister swept through the small cabins, three miles south of Mankato, reducing most of them to timbers. Twenty-five automobiles belonging to cabin residents were hurled onto Omaha railroad tracks nearby.

Every available vehicle was pressed into service to take injured to Immanuel and St. John's hospitals in Mankato.

A bread truck, its racks empty, hauled seven injured to Mankato.

Jerit Wohlford, who lives on the outskirts of Mankato, said he took five small children in his car to a hospital.

Hearses, trucks and taxis were dispatched to the storm area to transport additional injured.

Donald Wold, ambulance driver, and brother of Ed Wold, who reported the known dead, after making a trip to carry injured, said he hadn't seen "anything like this since I fought the Germans in France." Wold, a recently returned war veteran said "people were lying everywhere. The whole place is wrecked. Trees were stripped down to their trunks."

A'S, NATS DIVIDE 2

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The last-place Phladelphia Athletics divided a twin bill today with the Washington Senators, winning the second game 5 to 3 after losing the first 12 to 7.

The first game, a wild slugfest in which 33 hits were recorded, required two hours and 52 minutes. Bobo Newsom, colorful Washington hurler who started the season with the A's, received credit for the win although he was overcome by the heat at the end of the fifth inning and was removed.

Sam Chapman's 16th home run of the season sparked the eighth inning rally in which the A's scored all of their runs to win the second game.

BRAVES RECALL BRADY

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The Boston Braves today recalled catcher Bob Brady, who has been with the American Association's Indianapolis club since the beginning of the season The 175-pound six foot-one Hartford Conn., native is scheduled to report to the braves in St. Louis on Tuesday.

BILLED HERE

June Byers (above), colorful woman wrestler, will oppose Nell Stewart in a battle of girls here Tuesday night at Kallio's Arena as a feature attraction to the state heavyweight championship scramble between Champion Paul Murdock and Challenger Ray Clements.

MURDOCK TO RISK STATE TITLE HERE

Clements Gets Chance At Crown; Girls On Tuesday Card; Phantom Wins

Promoter Gus Kallio, last night announced another "wrestling extraveganza" for his Twin City mat fans Tuesday night when he produces a three-match card highlighted by a state championship scramble for Titleholder Paul Murdock and a pair of classy women wrestlers.

The girls last wrestled here in April when Nell Stewart went through the mill with Evelyn Wall. Tuesday Miss Stewart will be back for a date with the classy June Byers in a semi-final to the Paul Murdock-Ray Clements battle for the Louisiana heavyweight championship. Third scrap on the Tuesday program will be a 30-minute curtain-raiser between Babe Zaharias, Denver, Colo., and Dick Raines, tough Texan.

Last night's light heavyweight show produced the Phantom as the winner over Silver Star in the main event of an all-masked feature in which the loser was supposed to remove his mask.

But the Silver Star, although plenty willng to take off his mask, found the fans lined with him against the Phantom, and the paying customers loudly protested the Star's movements to take off his silvery hood.

Usually the fans are anxious to see the face of a masked tussler and learn his name, but Silver Star, in only two appearances here, has won a large following. If the Phantom had lost last night they would probably have scalped him before letting him get away without removing his black hood, but when the Star was beaten it was a different story.

First the fans didn't like the way the star lost against the villainy of his burly foe. The Phantom used very shacy tactics all the way.

"If the star had lost squarely, I wouldn't have opened my mouth," declared one fan who voiced disapproval as the star began unlacing his mask. "But I don't think he should have been forced to unmask under the circumstance even though I am as anxious as anybody to find out who he is."

The Phantom won the first fall in eight minutes, but the star flashed back to take the second in one minute after a series of flying head scissors by the Phantom awed. Then the Phantom took the deciding heat in nine minutes.

In last night's semi-final Irish Jack Kelly defeated Yaqui Joe, Sonoran two out of three falls Kelly won the first in ten minutes after some sluggish milling, but Joe evened the match in nine minutes of the second. Kelly rebounded to win the deciding fall in eight minutes.

6 p. m.—Kansas City (Mo.) Burnnetts vs. Milwaukee (Wis.) Nerads.

8 p. m.—Norman (Okla.) Jaycees vs. Ithaca (N.Y.).

10 p. m.—St. Joseph (Mich.) Autos vs. Thomaston (Ga.) Mills.

N. J. C. FOOTBALL CALIBER UP WITH BETTER TALENT, SLATE

Stronger Schedule, Improved Players Raises Hopes Of Indian Followers

The Northeast Junior College of L. S. U. Indians have two and a half more weeks to go before opening their fall football training program, but already the Redskins are rallying their forces for probably one of their finest teams against one of their strongest schedules.

Although Coach James L. Malone has so far kept from sounding a too optimistic note, building his hopes on a few holdovers from last year and returning war veterans of his 1942 team, there still persists a feeling among N. J. C. followers that the talent available at the local school this year will exceed anything in the past. Of course, other schools, including the outfits the Tribe will meet on the grid, will be stronger too.

An idea of something to be expected in the way of entirely new talent was the report Friday from Aliceville, Ala., that Tommy Hines, sensational high school athlete of last year, was planning "definitely" to enter N. J. C. Hines has been described as a pocket edition of Alabama's famed Harry Gimler, and Coach Malone, commenting on the report yesterday, said news that Hines had decided to come here was "mighty good."

Malone said he regarded Hines as "the nearest thing to Bobby Kellogg ever to appear in an Indian uniform" if he goes ahead with plans to report here September 3. Kellogg, later an all-Southeastern star at Tulane University, was the star ball carrier of N. J. C.'s great 1937 team.

But while the talent improves, so does the schedule.

The U. S. Merchant Marines of Pass Christian, Miss., furnish the opening opposition here September 27, and they proved their toughness last year when it took an intercepted pass and a blocked punt for the Tribe to beat them in their first scrap with the locals.

The Kilgore Rangers, old pre-war rival, have returned to the schedule to take up where they left off. Indian-Ranger games have resulted in scores of no more than a touchdown difference except for 1937 when the Kellogg-led Tribe ran up a 41-6 win. The Rangers are dated for October 5 in Kilgore.

The Ole Miss 'B' team has been slated for October 11, and the Redskins are probably sticking their neck out in taking on this one. Ole Miss will have around 100 ball players to pick this eleven from, and the Malonemen can't expect a set-up.

John McNeese Junior College of Lake Charles is on the slate for two games, here October 18 and at Lake Charles on November 1. McNeese is getting a "lot more state support" this year, according to reports, and will be especially out to knock off their north state rivals.

The old rivalry with the Copiah-Lincoln Wolves will be continued here October 26, and a pair of top-flight Arkansas schools, namely Arkansas State of Magnolia, and Arkansas Tech, will furnish the concluding opposition.

Arkansas State looms as the "tough customer," and is being regarded throughout the south as the dark horse of the southern circle. The simple reason for the mounting respect pointed Arkansas State's way is the fact that Elmer Smith, former Centenary coach, has been signed to coach the Mule-riders, and, since Centenary has abandoned football he'll have Centenary's '41-42 gridders back from military service up there with him.

Arkansas Tech, winner of 21 consecutive games and one of the Arkansas schools that never disbanded its football squad during the war, will be the Tribe's last opposition on November 21.

LOUISIANA GOLFERS BILL NEW TOURNEY

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17. —(AP)—The first of a new series of Louisiana Open championship tournaments will be played on the Louisiana State University course in Baton Rouge Nov. 1-3.

The new tournament was announced here by the Louisiana State Golf Association and the Louisiana Professional Golfers' Association, sponsors. It will replace the old Louisiana Open, which did not attract statewide competition on a large scale, and which will be known in the records henceforth as the Pelican Open.

The new Open tourney will be held on the week-end of the L. S. U.-Ole Miss football game in Baton Rouge. Tulane will have an open date on that Saturday.

It will be a 72-hole affair with flights arranged by scores.

A purse of $1,000 will be posted, with the amateur awards to come out of it, and each player will be assessed $5 entry fee.

The planning committee includes E. S. "Shep" Girault of Monroe, Joe Gumbel of New Orleans and Charles Waters of Alexandria, representing the amateur group, and Floyd Rood of New Iberia and Henry Thomas of New Orleans, representing the professionals.

WEST FLEET TRIUMPHS

SALEM, N. C., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Shaking off a ten-week lethargy H. T. Darling's crack sprinter West Fleet, the sensation of the spring racing season, came back to win the $7,500-Added Lowell Handicap at Rockingham Park today, covering the six furlongs over a muddy track in 1:11 4/5.

West Fleet was hard put to turn back Kenmore Stables Hy-Charlie by a nose J. P. Holtons' fleet Jo Agnes set the early pace and hung on to finish third.

PIRATES TO MIAMI BEACH

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Aug. 17.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, recently purchased by Bing Crosby and three associates, will do their spring training on Miami Beach in 1947, it was announced today. The Pirates will take over facilities at Flamingo Park formerly used by the Philadelphia Phillies.

YANKS FALL AGAIN BEFORE RED HOSE

Boston Americans Win, 7-4, To Take 14-Game Margin In League Race

BOSTON, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Boston's league-leading Red Sox continued their march toward the American League pennant today by beating the second place New York Yankees, 7-4. The clubs now are separated by 14 games.

Dave Ferriss

The victory was the 21st, and ninth in a row, for Delta Dave Ferris, who had the New Yorkers well under control until the ninth when they rallied for three runs.

Until the last frame, Ferriss, who was pitching his 14th complete game, had given up but three singles and had struck out six.

He didn't yield a base on balls and the first New York run was scored after an error by Rudy York in the second inning.

Ted Williams drove out his 32nd home run, a long sock that traveled fully 400 feet into the right field bleachers.

Bobby Doerr also banged out a circuit wallop.

Until the ninth, which Bill Johnson opened by singling, Ferriss had faced 28 batters. Though the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth innings, he retired the Yanks in order.

TIGERS 7, BROWNS 3

DETROIT, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Pounding Bob Muncrief for 10 hits in the first five innings, the Detroit Tigers captured a free-hitting contest from the St. Louis Browns, 7 to 3, today, sending the seventh place Brownies to their fifth straight defeat.

Al Benton, who pitched eight innings and allowed all of St. Louis' 11 hits, was the winning pitcher as Detroit moved within a single game of second place in the American League.

Hank Greenberg's 25th home run was the only extra-base blow in the 14 hits the Tigers collected.

NEVILLE LINEMEN REPORT MONDAY

Full Tiger Squad Expected Tomorrow; Backs Have Had Week's Work

Two backfield sets and a sprinkling of linemen reported for work with the Neville High School Tigers when backfield candidates were called for work last Monday, and tomorrow morning Coach Bill Ruple wants all linemen to be on hand as the Bengals move into their fall football training program in high gear.

Most promising backs to try out for the first week's work are Jeff Dollar, quarterback; Perry Fisher, fullback; Charles Dean, left halfback; John Smith, quarterback; Bucky McElroy, left halfback; Jeff Hennessy, right halfback, and Robert Nelson, fullback.

Not all of Neville's backfield talent was on hand the past week, but just about everything available is due to report tomorrow along with the linemen.

Coach Bill Ruple last night expressed gratification at the enthusiasm with which his boys have responded to work.

"We lost some mighty good boys from our last year's team," Ruple declared. "We have some good boys coming up, but it'll take a lot of hard work for these replacements to make the fans forget the graduated players. I think though, that we have several boys who will look as good or better than any individuals we've had before although the team as a whole does not yet measure up to what we had last season when we won seven games and lost only one."

Tomorrow's meeting of the full squad is scheduled for 9:30 o'clock at Neville Stadium.

EDUCATION WINS AT WASHINGTON PARK

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Education, a sleek black colt owned by Mrs. Fred W. Hooper, Jacksonville, Fla., streaked to a three and a quarter lengths victory in the $80,025 Washington Park Futurity today to become the leading money winning two year old of 1946.

The six furlong race, witnessed by 32,000, was marred by a buck stretch spill which knocked Stepfather, California juvenile star, and John's Pride, out of the race.

John's Pride, ridden by jockey "Wee Willie" Johnson, stumbled and fell about a sixteenth of a mile from the start, causing Stepfather, the Louis B. Mayer colt ridden by Jackie Westrope, to crash into him and also go down. Neither jockey was seriously injured. Westrope was able to walk off the track, but Johnson was carried.

The victory was worth $65,125 to Mrs. Hooper and zoomed Education's earnings to $108,385 in seven stake victories.

Education, ridden by the veteran Johnny Adams, sped the six furlongs over a muddy track in 1:12 1/5.

Jet-Jet, a 40 to 1 shot, grouped in the field, came charging down the stretch to finish second, with the Woolford Farm's Delegate finishing third, a length back of Jet-Jet and C. V. Whitney's Grey Skies fourth.

Second choice of a wide-open betting race, Education returned $13.40, $7.60 and $5.80. Jet-Jet rewarded his longshot followers with $33.40 and $14.80. Delegate's show price was $9.00.

JONES, GIRAULT TANGLE IN FINALS OF CITY GOLF

Bil. Jones, defending city golf champion, puts his title on the line against the challenge of E. S. "Shep" Girault in the finals of the revived City Tournament at Municipal Golf Club here today.

Jones, who held the frozen title during his star in military service while the tournament was dormant, faces a serious threat in Girault, one of Monroe's better amateur linksmen.

The City finalists will meet over a 36-hole distance with the first round scheduled to begin this morning at 9 o'clock over the Muny course, and the last 18 holes billed to begin at 2 p. m., Pro Gene Shirah said last night.

Pro Shirah also announced last night the scheduling of a club match with Natchez, Miss., for August 24 here, and requested that as many Municipal members as possible sign up for the meet. Natchez will be given a return match September 9.

CARDINAL SCOUT SLAIN AT DALLAS

Officers Investigating Strange Death Of Edward Lester Wilson

DALLAS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The nude, bloody body of Edward Lester Wilson, 37-year-old scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, was found today in wrecked hotel room but an autopsy disclosed no wounds capable of causing death.

The theory that Wilson was slain was being discounted, police reported.

Justice of the Peace W. L. Sterrett said Dr. Charles Ashworth who conducted the autopsy reported there were no wounds capable of causing death but that there were signs of alcoholism evident.

Officers said they could find no injury serious enough to cause death. There is one slight wound and a bruise behind one ear, they said. Wilson bled profusely, apparently from the nose and mouth.

Detective Chief Will Fritz said two men, dressed in khaki, were sought for questioning.

The men were seen walking down the hotel's fourth floor hallway with Wilson yesterday afternoon.

On the floor of the wrecked room police found fragments of a torn photograph of a woman. Only the lower part of the picture could be found.

Fritz said the man had been dead only two or three hours when found, but he believed the fight probably had occurred several hours earlier.

Wilson's body, stripped of all clothing, was found in a sitting position, slumped against a wall with one arm draped over a chair. Furniture had been scattered around the room and broken, and blood was on walls, floor and bedclothing.

Further adding to the mystery was a statement by Joe Mathes, director of the St. Louis Cardinal farm system, saying he was surprised to learn Wilson was in Dallas. In a telephone call from St. Louis he had last talked to the scout in Houston, Tex., last week. He said Wilson had been scheduled to be in Colorado Springs, Colo., for the American Legion tournament Aug. 11-14.

JUMPS BACK

WAUKESHA, Wis., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Vince Banonis, former University of Detroit center, who signed a contract with the Cleveland Browns of the All-American Football Conference this year, has returned to the Chicago Cardinals of the rival National Football League with whom he played in 1932, spokesman for the Cards said today.

'CRUCIAL' GAMES FACE SEMI-PROS

Bastrop Makes Final Bid For Second Half Title Against Winnsboro

The attention of the North Louisiana Baseball League today is focused on Bastrop where Manager John Wright's Buckshots make their final bid for the last half championship title against Manager Edgar Lowery's Winnsboro club at 3 o'clock at Synder Park.

The Buckshots, now in third place just half a game behind Winnsboro and Good Pine, both tied for first place, must win today to stay in the title chase. Then if Bastrop wins today their only other hope is that Winnsboro will be able to beat the LaSalle Oilers of Good Pine on Wednesday, thus throwing Bastrop and Winnsboro into a tie for first place and necessitating a playoff for first place.

Winnsboro, if victorious today, still must win over Good Pine Wednesday to clinch the second half flag, and regardless of the outcome of today's games, the Oilers can assure themselves of the right to meet Clarks, first half winners, in the championship series if they stop Winnsboro Wednesday.

All in all, the second half chase has been a nip-and-tuck affair with Winnsboro, Bastrop and Good Pine all sharing the lead at times and never more than two games apart.

In the only other game scheduled for today the Clarks White Sox invade Olla. Manager R. W. Carter's Tigers have been one of the "jinx" clubs for Manager E. M. Steely's Sox this year, being able to knock off the Sockers when least expected. Only last Wednesday, the Tigers handed the first half champs a 4-1 defeat. Their game today, like the Bastrop-Winnsboro contest, is a make up affair for a rained out contest.

Bastrop Friday night went to Crossett for a non-league game, trouncing the Arkansas club, 14 to 10. The Bucks held a 7-0 lead at the end of two innings and were out in front, 11-3, at the end of the seventh. Crossett tightened the game with five runs in the eighth.

SHREVEPORT TENNIS ACE IN ARK. FINALS

LLITTLE ROCK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The Arkansas Open Tennis Tournament's six divisions will come to a head at Lamar Porter field tomorrow afternoon with Joe Stephens, L. S. U. ace from Shreveport, and George Dunklin, many-times state title-holder from Pine Bluff, squaring off for the coveted men's singles trophy.

Form held true all the way as the top-seeded Stephens eliminated Erwin Busick of Springfield, Mo., in a tight struggle, 6-4, 6-4. Dunklin, ranked second, turned back Gary Albertine of Memphis, 6-4, 6-2. It was the fourth straight-set edge for the Pine Bluff ace, one-time University of Virginia pace-setter.

The title tussle is timed for 2 p. m.

Busick gained the final round in the junior men's class and will take on Steve Potts of Memphis at 2 p. m. Potts trounced Don Merritt, Memphis 6-0, 6-4, while Busick ousted another young Memphian, Glenn Turpin, by the same count.

Marily McRae encountered considerable trouble in outlasting Virginia Sharp Simmons of Memphis, 6-3, 4-6, and 6-3. She will meet Ann Kouns of Memphis, who took Lavern Boyd, 6-2, 6-3, for the women's cup.

Finalists in the men's doubles are Harry and Louis Welford of Memphis, and Erwin and Paul Busick of Springfield, who will play at 4 p. m. The Welfords beat Herman Baker and Phil McCook of Shreveport, 1-6, 7-5, 6-4. The Busicks defeated Marion Boggs and James Walton of Little Rock, 6-1, 6-2.

MASKELL WINNER

EASTBOURNE, England, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Dan Maskell of the Wimbledon All-England Tennis Club, won the British professional lawn tennis championship today for the twelfth time, beating Joe Pearce of the London Queen's Club, 6-2, 7-5, 8-6. Maskell also is the coach of the British Davis Cup teams.

Turkey production of the United states nearly tripled in the last 15 years.

PIRATES TO VOTE IN BARGAINING ELECTION

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates—low in the National League pennant race but high in the news standings in a tumultuous season—will make baseball history here Tuesday as principals in the game's first collective bargaining election.

This epochal effort to have baseball chattels unionized results from the single-handed efforts of Robert Murphy, one-time Harvard law student of Boston.

He's the father, the motivating spirit and "the voice" of the American baseball guild which seeks recognition as the players' bargaining agent.

The election was ordered by the Pennsylvania labor relations board Aug. 7 after the national labor relations board dismissed Murphy's petition last June because of reluctance to raise the question of jurisdiction "at this time."

Thirty-one Pirate players are eligible to cast secret ballots at the P. L. R. B.' offices here between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 6:30 p. m. and results will be announced immediately afterwards. The Pirates meet Brooklyn in a night game following the vote.

LOUISE SUGGS WINS WOMEN'S WESTERN

CLEVELAND, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Another golf great from that golfing state—Georgia—carried on an illustrious tradition today when 22-year-old Louise Suggs marked up her seventh major triumph of the season by annexing the 46th annual Women's Western Amateur championship.

Displaying startling consistency, the little brunette swinger from Lithia Springs turned back the challenge of 19-year-old Mary McMillin, who had rocketed into the finals with a pair of startling upset wins over defending champion Phyllis Otto and Mrs. Mildred (Babe Didrikson) Zaharias.

A combination of overpowering golf and cracking nerves was too much for the little Green Bay, Wis., stenographer as Miss Suggs breezed through to an 11 and 10 triumph.

The Georgia Miss streaked through the 18-hole morning round with a one-under-par 75 for an eight up advantage and was even par 35 for the eight holes of the afternoon tussle.

ALL-STARS TACKLE PINE BLUFF TODAY

The strong Monroe All-Stars, Negro baseball club, goes into action here again this afternoon against the powerful Pine Bluff Tigers of Pine Bluff, Ark., at 3 o'clock at Casino Park. The game will be the first of two engagements with the Bengals, the second slated for tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Although Manager Joe Culley's All-Stars boast a fine record of 17 victories against just five defeats this year, the locals will be tackling an aggregation boasting an even better average. The Tigers have won 25 and lost two, the Arkansas club having lost only to the strong Hot Springs club and to the Memphis Red Sox.

Only defeats suffered by the All-Stars this year have been at the hands of the Port Gibson, Miss., Adds and the Hodge Black Wa-Ha's.

Manager Culley last night said he was undecided about his starting pitcher today, but promised the Stars would meet the visitors with their best possible lineup.

Seats have been reserved for the All-Star's white fans.

WILBURN WINS IN AUTO RACE AT SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Jimmy Wilburn of Portland, Ore., won the 50 mile $1,000 feature of the Illinois State Fair's $5,000 dirt track automobile race program today.

His time was 35 minutes 29.83 seconds. He had the fastest time trial by circling the mile track in 38.71 seconds. In 1941, before the war interrupted the fair, he won the 50 mile feature in a record 34 minutes 53.02 seconds.

Finishing in order behind Wilburn in the main even were Chuck Frame, Chicago; Bob Simpson, Detroit; Buster Warke, Paterson, N. J.; Lyle Christie, Milwaukee; Harry King, Detroit; Bill Hooper, Decatur, Ill., and Herschel Buchanan, Shreveport, La.

Twenty-one cars qualified for the 100 laps of competitive events.

GREEN GRIDDERS REPORT TUESDAY

Tulane Turns Over New Leaf With New Coach, New Players, New Equipment

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Head Coach Henry Frnka, starting his first year of tutelage at Tulane University, said today he expects to greet about 90 candidates for the 1946 football squad next Tuesday, when the fall practice season officially opens.

From this material Frnka and his staff will set about shaping a squad to meet such football titans as Alabama, Notre Dame, Southern California, Louisiana State, Georgia Tech and Mississippi State.

Tulane's playing season opens at New Orleans on Sept. 28 against Alabama as the first of the ten opponents.

Among the 1946 candidates are many former service men, some holdovers from last season and incoming freshmen, groups of whom have met separately in spring and summer practice.

The first job will be to "mould the squad into a single efficient unit," says Frnka, pointing out that Tulane faces a big task this season with "a new coach, a new group of players and new equipment."

Secret practice sessions are to be held daily, morning and afternoon.

The Tulane 1946 schedule, without a "breather game," follows:

Sept. 28—Alabama; Oct. 5—Florida; Oct. 12—Rice; Oct. 19—Auburn; Oct. 26—Miss. State; Nov. 2 (remaining open); Nov. 9—Clemson; Nov. 16—Georgia Tech at Atlanta; Nov. 23—Notre Dame (homecoming); Nov. 30—L. S. U. at Baton Rouge; Dec. 21—Southern California (game subject to cancellation if either team accepts a bowl bid.)

SPORTS ROUND UP

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Frankie Parker is upsetting both tennis tradition and the hopes of a few tournament chairmen by going into the defense of his national championship with virtually no practice on grass courts . . . Frankie figures its better to keep from going stale than to get the extra drills, so he avoided tournaments from Spring Lake up to next week's national doubles . . . He may have something, too, because you remember he flew in from Guam to win last year's title and in 1944 did his tuning-up at Muroc, Calif., where a blade of grass is a novelty . . . If Mickey Vernon wins the American League batting title this year, he'll be the second player in three years to do it in the first season he hit over .300. Vernon's best so far is .299 and Lou Boudreau beat .300 in 1944 for the first time to win the crown.

Seeing Eye-Tems

Lou Little is due back in town next week from Cape Cod to start serious worrying about the Columbia football season. Other Columbians hint that Lou really won't have to worry much . . . And Oregon's Howard Hobson, who has been giving a summer basketball course here and doing more research on the game, grabbed the first plane for home after finishing his work yesterday . . . Bill Canfield and Dick Bushnell, leading candidates for halfback posts at Purdue, both are son's of Purdue faculty members Bill's dad is prof. of electrical engineering and Dick's father is a soils survey specialist . . . Cyril Gallie, tabbed as the best lightweight prospect to come here from Britain in years, can entertain the fans with a nifty sword dance. At least its a change from some of those waltzes the customers have seen.

Weak-End Notes

This year's football speed record (especially on reverses) probably belongs to George Terlep, who quarterbacked for Great Lakes last fall. He already has appeared at Iowa, Illinois, Notre Dame and the Buffalo Bisons' camps this summer . . . Gene Weinert, son of the Villanova coach who is pitching some fine baseball for his dad in the Philadelphia Industrial League, wouldn't listen when several big league scouts approached him. Pop Weinert figured that Gene would benefit by a sandlot season after two years in the navy . . . When a lightweght war vet, Jim Wolf, asked Penn State's Bob Higgins how about organizing a 150-pound football team, Bob moaned: "What would I do for varsity players then?"

TURBINE HOME FIRST

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Mrs. H. Lebowitz' Turbine won the All - American $25,000-Added Handicap by a nose over Christiana Stable's Alexis before an estimated 21,000 at the final day's racing at Atlantic City race track today. Turbine paid $4.00.

Turbine ran the one mile and three-sixteenths in 1:57 3/5, a new track record.

Alexis finished second, five lengths ahead of Service Pilot, another Christiana Stable entry.

CUBS SHADE BUCS

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2 to 1 today after Pirate Pitcher Edson Bahr walked in the winning run in the ninth inning.

The Cubs' payoff inning opened with Phil Cavarretta's double. He moved to third on Peanuts Lowrey's sacrifice. Bill Nicholson and Bob Scheffing were gifted with intentional passes, filling the bases.

Waitkus, who batted for Bob Turgeon took four wide pitches without moving his bat from his shoulder then went to first and Cavaretta came in with the winning run.

CHARLESTOWN, S. C., GETS AMERICAN LEGION FINALS

GASTONIA, N. C., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Winners of regional American Legion junior baseball tournaments at Shelby, N. C., Florence, S. C., and New Orleans, survivors of an original field of 12 teams, will gather here Monday night for the southeastern sectional tournament to decide which will compete for the national finals.

The "Little World Series," set for Aug. 26 was awarded today to Charlestown, S. C.

Kannapolis, N. C., Thomaston, Ga., and New Orleans, will stage a double elimination tournament, the winner joining survivors of three other nation-wide sectional meets to contest the finals.

Pairings will be drawn tomorrow night, with one team drawing a bye for the first night. Play will continue with the team receiving the bye playing the first round loser the next day. The team escaping two defeats in the three days of play will move to the nationals.

The New Orleans Jesuits, who clinched their regional honors with a conquest of Little Rock, Ark., have a team built around the club that won the southeastern high school tournament at Atlanta in the spring.

DISGUISED STOLEN AUTO FOUND HERE

Winnfield Girl And Texas Ex-Convict Held On Federal Charges

A 1941 Chevrolet sedan that was black when it was stolen at Lufkin, Tex., last month and gray when it was sold on August 5 to the M & S Motor Sales Corporation, 1312 DeSiard Street, has been recovered here by E. G. Bailey, Shreveport manager for the owner, the Red Ball Motor Freight Lines.

Held in jail at Shreveport and charged in federal court there with violation of the Dyer act, relative to transporting a stolen vehicle across a state line, are Henry McDonald, 33, of Dallas, and Mavis Carpenter Thompson, 20, of Winnfield, who were said to have admitted theft and sale of the auto.

The young woman, also known as Mrs. Jimmie Baker, represented herself to be the owner of the car, for which she was paid $800 by the Monroe concern. The sedan's Texas license had been thrown away and it bore a tag that was found to have been issued to a Ruston resident.

Monroe police found the machine at the used car lot on August 14, after being furnished a discription by the Shreveport department. McDonald was said to have served four terms in the Texas State Penitentiary for robbery.

FLYING TO CAMP

Mrs. Rosemary Mink is to leave Sunday via Delta Air Lines for Camp Caroline, Brevard, North Carolina, where she will represent the local Red Cross chapter in an advanced course in lifesaving, first aid and accident prevention. Mrs. Mink was chosen for the trip because of her outstanding work in swimming and water safety programs. She has recently completed instruction of a swimming course for women at the Swayze Natatorium.

BANISTER IS NAMED NAVY DAY ASSISTANT

Appointment of State Representative D. Ross Banister as co-chairman to assist him in arranging for observance of Navy Day here October 27 was announced yesterday by Chairman Otto E. Passman. Mr. Banister will fly to New Orleans tomorrow for a state-wide conference of Navy Day chairmen. The conference was called, to coordinate local plans.

The conference will take place at a luncheon in New Orleans.

According to a telegram received by Mr. Passman from Commander B J. Semmes, Jr., aide to the commandant of the eighth naval district, a navy plane piloted by Lieutenant Commander Edmonson will pick Mr. Banister up at Turner field, near here, at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and transport him back to Monroe during the early afternoon. The plane will carry other north Louisiana chairmen to and from the conference.

Organization of a local Navy Day committee would be undertaken upon Mr. Banister's return from New Orleans, it was said.

TAX UNIT REGISTERS ONLY AUTOMATIC GUNS

The federal alcohol tax service, charged with enforcement of the national firearms act, is interested only in automatic weapons and not pistols, revolvers, rifles, shotguns or any other type of weapons, Clyde Pace, state agent in charge, explained Saturday.

Any gun that shoots more than one bullet at a single pressure of the trigger, the announcement said, must be registered with the department. Registrations of such weapons for Monroe and vicinity are taken at the tax unit's office on the third floor of the post office building.

STIFF FINES, JAIL TERMS EFFECTIVE

Week Passes Without Drunk Driving Arrest By State Troopers

For the first time in more than a year, a week has passed without a single arrest of a drunk driver by members of Troop F of the Monroe state police post. In fact, the seven days ending yesterday were just about the dullest on record for the troop.

The post's weekly report shows but two arrests—Audrey Newsom, 26, of Winnsboro, and Johnnie Brown, 21, of 615 St. John Street, Monroe, both for operating cars with improper lights. Newsom was fined $5 and costs. The only other disposition of the week was the fining of W. M. White, 39, of 205 Pine Street, Monroe, $15 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Commenting on the sudden pause of drunk driving cases, officers said they believed the $100 and costs penalties that have been imposed by all courts recently, and particularly the jail sentences that have been added by Judge Jesse Heard of the West Monroe city court, are having "a good effect."

JOHNSON BROS. SHOP HAS 14TH ANNIVERSARY

The anniversary of fourteen years of growth is being celebrated this week by the Johnson Brothers Barber Shop, 103 Catalpa Street. The brothers who founded the business, O. L. and S. A. Johnson, came to Monroe in 1929 from Opelousas, and both worked as journeymen barbers until 1932, when they opened their own shop.

In 1938, the business had grown to a five-chair shop, and a third brother, M. P. Johnson, then became a partner.

The employees of the shop are all veteran barbers. A. C. Lea, has had eighteen years' experience and P. W. Parker and W. F. Garner have served the public for twenty years.

TERRY AND THE PIRATES

By MILTON CANIFF

TERRY, MY FINE FLYBOY, YOUR WORRIES ARE OVER ABOUT CHARLIE CHARLES FALLING FOR THAT NASTALTHIA SMYTHE-HEATHERSTONE!

DON'T GET ME WRONG, JOE, IT'S NONE OF MY BUSINESS, —BUT I HATE TO SEE OLD CHAZZ TAKEN OVER THE HOPS BY A BABE LIKE NASTY!

LEAVE IT TO FATE, GATE! YOU CHARACTERS ARE OFF ON SEPARATE KICKS, NOW!

YOU BOYS ARE BOOKED TO RUN RELIEF SUPPLIES INTO THE FAMINE AREAS— AND MISS NASTY WAS SO BOILED AT YOU, TERRY, FOR REFUSING TO HOLD HER HAND THAT SHE'S ANNOUNCED SHE'S LEAVING TOWN...

I'LL BELIEVE THAT WHEN I SEE A NOTARIZED STATEMENT OF HER ACTUAL ARRIVAL IN SOME FAR-AWAY PLACE!

NOW, WHAT'S THE PITCH ON THE BIG FAMINE RELIEF DEAL?

AIR CATHAY HAS BEEN CHARTERED TO HAUL EMERGENCY CHOW INTO PLACES WHERE EXISTING TRANSPORT WOULD ARRIVE TOO LATE!

LATER...

I DON'T KNOW WHY I STEWED ABOUT OL' HOTSHOT! HE'S PITCHING INTO THIS LOADING JOB AS IF HE'D NEVER HAD A GAL ON HIS MIND...

TERRY, MINE FRIENDLY, AREN'T WE SORTA CLOSE TO HAVING AN OVERLOAD FOR THE TERRAIN WE'LL COVER?

I'VE FIGURED IT CLOSE, CHAZZ, BUT WITHIN THE SPECIFICATIONS FOR THE AIRPLANE... RELIEF OR NOT, THIS MUST BE TREATED AS A CHARTER PAY LOAD!

YEAH—THAT'S THE KIND OF LYRIC THAT GOES WITH HARP MUSIC! WELL, I'LL SHOVE THE BULK RICE FORWARD...

THAT SORT OF TALK IS MORE LIKE THE OLD HOTSHOT CHARLIE! HEY! IS THAT ANOTHER LOAD OF RELIEF SUPPLIES FOR OUR ALREADY HEAVY AIRPLANE?

IT'S NEITHER FOOD NOR MEDICINE— IT'S PERSONAL LUGGAGE!

WHY—IT'S NASTALTHIA SMYTHE-HEATHERSTONE!

YOU SEEM SURPRISED, TERRY...

I THOUGHT YOU WERE LEAVING TOWN!

I AM—WITH YOU, BEAUTIFUL!... MY FATHER PAID FOR CHARTERING YOUR PLANE FOR RELIEF—AND I AM IN CHARGE OF THE EXPEDITION!

THIS IS IT! THIS IS THE DAY! LET THE WEDDING BELLS RING OUT!

B.O. PLENTY GRAVEL GERTIE

A COUNTRY JUDGE—MUSIC BY RADIO—A SELECT GROUP OF WELL-WISHERS! YES, B.O. PLENTY AND GRAVEL GERTIE ARE ABOUT TO BECOME ONE!

COME ON, NOW. THEY'RE ALL READY.

JUNGLE BELL ARMS

DARN YOU! TAKE OFF THAT HAT!

MY FRIENDS, WE ARE GATHERED TOGETHER HERE—

TO WITNESS THIS UNION IN WEDLOCK —OF—

I LOVE YOU TRULY

HOPPENSAP'S DEPARTMENT STORE DEDICATES THIS NUMBER TO GRAVEL GERTIE AND B.O. PLENTY WHO ARE BEING MARRIED TODAY

POLIC

---DO YOU, B.O. PLENTY, PROMISE TO TAKE THIS WOMAN WHOM YOU NOW HOLD BY THE RIGHT HAND---

---AS YOUR LAWFUL WEDDED WIFE SO LONG AS YOU BOTH SHALL LIVE?

WHY SHORE!

AND DO YOU, GRAVEL GERTIE, TAKE THIS MAN---

JINGLE JINGLE JINGLE SOOPER SOAP FOR THE TOOTSIES AND THE THROAT

---FOR YOUR LAWFUL WEDDED HUSBAND?

I DO!

POLICE

---I NOW PRONOUNCE YOU MAN AND WIFE!

B.O. PLENTY?

YES, SIR. MR. B. O. PLENTY —NOW!

COME WITH ME. YOU ARE UNDER ARREST!

HUH? WHAT ARE YOU TALKING ABOUT, OFFICER?

JUDGE HAYES DIED LAST NIGHT. JUDGE NOLAN, WHO HAS REPLACED HIM ON THE BENCH, HAS CANCELLED B. O. PLENTY'S BOND. HERE'S THE WARRANT FOR HIS ARREST.

THIS MUST BE A GAG!

EEK

I WISH IT WERE, MR. TRACY, BUT YOU KNOW JUDGE NOLAN.

AND IN THE JUDGE'S CHAMBERS.

I NEVER DID LIKE THE WAY JUDGE HAYES ADMITTED B.O. PLENTY TO BOND. THAT MAN'S A MENACE, —A DANGEROUS CHARACTER! A---

HAVE ANOTHER BISMUTH, JUDGE.

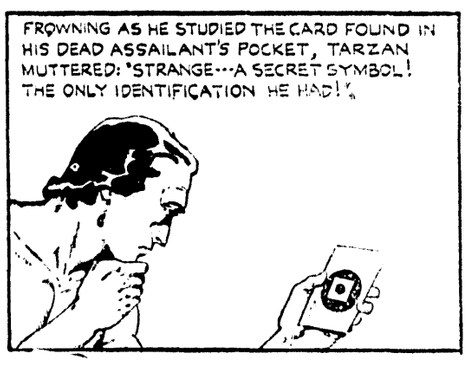
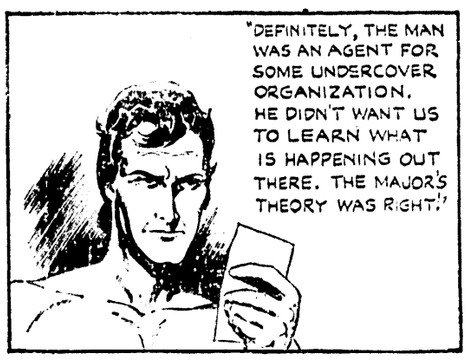
Tarzan

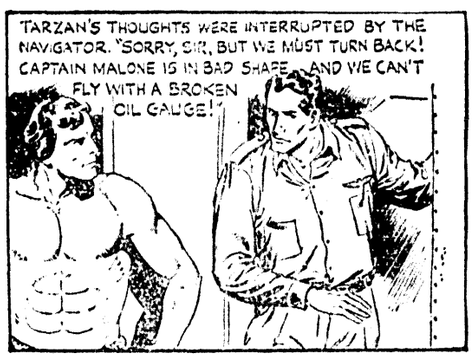
by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS



FROWNING AS HE STUDIED THE CARD FOUND IN HIS DEAD ASSAILANT'S POCKET, TARZAN MUTTERED: "STRANGE---A SECRET SYMBOL! THE ONLY IDENTIFICATION HE HAD!"



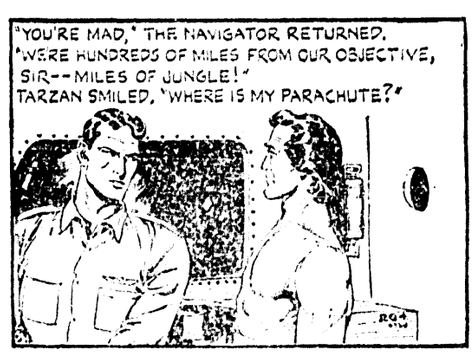
"DEFINITELY, THE MAN WAS AN AGENT FOR SOME UNDERCOVER ORGANIZATION. HE DIDN'T WANT US TO LEARN WHAT IS HAPPENING OUT THERE. THE MAJOR'S THEORY WAS RIGHT!"



TARZAN'S THOUGHTS WERE INTERRUPTED BY THE NAVIGATOR. "SORRY, SIR, BUT WE MUST TURN BACK! CAPTAIN MALONE IS IN BAD SHAPE, AND WE CAN'T FLY WITH A BROKEN OIL GAUGE!"

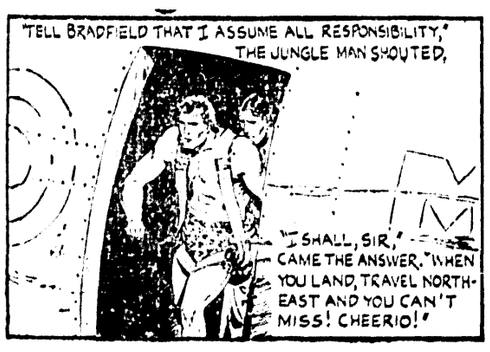
"MAN, WE CAN'T GO BACK NOW! EVERY MINUTE COUNTS!" TARZAN EXCLAIMED. "SEE THIS SYMBOL? IT MEANS SOMETHING BIG---SOMETHING AWFUL--- IS GOING ON!"

"IT MUST BE STOPPED!" TARZAN ASSERTED. THE OFFICER TURNED TO THE WOUNDED CAPTAIN. "WE'RE HEADING FOR TANGA, SIR. THE CO-PILOT'S IN CHARGE AND THAT'S HIS DECISION!"

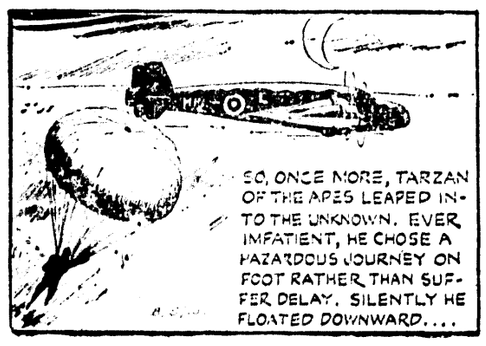


"YOU'RE MAD," THE NAVIGATOR RETURNED. "WE'RE HUNDREDS OF MILES FROM OUR OBJECTIVE, SIR--MILES OF JUNGLE!" TARZAN SMILED, "WHERE IS MY PARACHUTE?"

THE NAVIGATOR FUMED AS HE HELPED ADJUST THE CHUTE. "BY JOVE, SIR, MAJOR BRADFIELD WILL HAVE US UP FOR THIS. I SHOULD NOT LET YOU DO IT!"



"TELL BRADFIELD THAT I ASSUME ALL RESPONSIBILITY," THE JUNGLE MAN SHOUTED,
"I SHALL, SIR," CAME THE ANSWER. "WHEN YOU LAND, TRAVEL NORTH-EAST AND YOU CAN'T MISS! CHEERIO!"



SO, ONCE MORE, TARZAN OF THE APES LEAPED INTO THE UNKNOWN. EVER IMPATIENT, HE CHOSE A HAZARDOUS JOURNEY ON FOOT RATHER THAN SUFFER DELAY. SILENTLY HE FLOATED DOWNWARD....

JUNGLE JIM

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

JIM AND LIL SAIL BACK TOWARD CIVILIZATION. "WITH THAT PEARL-STEALING CLEARED UP, I'M GOING TO TAKE A LONG VACATION," JIM SIGHS, HAPPILY.

Copr. 1946, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

BUT IN PORT, A DESPERATE MAN IS WAITING FOR THEM. "MR. BRADLEY? I'M CARSON. I NEED YOUR HELP. MY FIANCÉE IS MISSING--IN THE JUNGLE." JIM LOOKS AT LIL, QUIZZICALLY. SHE GRINS, "HERE WE GO AGAIN!"

8-18-46

"HERE'S MY PLANE. I'LL TELL YOU ABOUT IT ON THE WAY ...MY GIRL, LITA, WAS IN SIAM--THAILAND--WHEN THE JAPS TOOK OVER. AFTER THE WAR, WE THOUGHT SHE WAS DEAD. THEN I GOT HER STRANGE MESSAGE FROM THE INTERIOR--WARNING ME TO FORGET HER!"

THE MYSTERY CHALLENGES JIM, AS THEY HOP RECKLESSLY FROM ISLAND TO ISLAND, TILL THEY REACH BANGKOK, WHERE LITA HAD LAST BEEN SEEN.

NEXT WEEK: WARNING MESSAGE

"YOU HAVEN'T KILLED ME YET WITH YOUR BOASTED 'DOZEN DEATHS', VALKIR," FLASH MOCKS. SHE FAIRLY SPITS AT HIM, "SEE HOW YOU LIKE MY NEXT CHAMPION--THE OCTOSHARK!"

BRAVELY, FLASH DIVES INTO THE "POOL OF DOOM" WHERE HIS UNKNOWN ENEMY HUNGRILY AWAITS ITS NEXT MEAL.

BUT NOT EVEN FLASH CAN FIGHT THIS SEA MONSTER, UNARMED. THE OCTOPUS'S ARMS DRAG HIM UNDER TOWARD ITS FANGED-SHARK MOUTH.

INSTEAD OF VAINLY STRUGGLING TO ESCAPE UNTIL HE DROWNS, FLASH SWIMS TOWARD THE MONSTER'S HEAD, AND JABS FIERCELY AT ITS EYES.

HE CANNOT MANAGE TO BLIND IT, BUT HE MOMENTARILY WINS FREE FROM THE WILDLY THRASHING CREATURE. HE GULPS GREAT LUNGFULS OF AIR.

BUT THE OCTOSHARK WILL NOT BE CHEATED OF ITS DINNER. VICIOUSLY IT TUGS FLASH FROM THE ROCKS AT THE POOL'S EDGE.
